We pause to reflect, for a weekend, on our founders—the Rededication of Cutler Hall, the big event, was complete with crowds, our band, notable speakers, including Governor Herbert. His cannon salute broke the usual peace of the campus, caused many to reflect uneasily.

H. Armbruster, Dean of the College of Commerce; F. B. Dilley, Director of Admissions; H. E. Benz, representing E. R. Collins, Dean of the College of Education; E. J. Taylor, Dean of the College of Applied Science; O. C. Bird, Director of Physical Welfare; R. Elliot, Director of Summer Session; J. E. Voigt, Dean of Women; J. C. Baker, President of the University.

The Women's League, active women's organization, thru their Senate and Assembly give Women's League Senate includes: Betty Armstrong, Jo Frederick, Dean Voigt, Betty Smith, Jo Cross, Norma Koons, Murray Huck, Dee Horgan, Donna Burton, Nancy Quackenbush, Shirley Cody, Kathy Bernhardt.

Women's League, of which every enrolled women student is a member, supervises campus affairs concerning the women of Ohio University and sponsors a well rounded social program. The League is composed of two bodies, the assembly and the senate, and all housing units are represented. McGuffey Hall serves as headquarters for meetings of the organization.

On the 47-48 calendar were weekly open houses at Dean Voigt's, mass meetings on every phase of the home, and in the spring, a conference of Women's Government Organizations from various colleges the size of OU. The annual Co-ed Prom, Leader's Rally Luncheon, freshmen mixers, the music festival and the housemother's tea are all sponsored by Women's League.

Women's League Senate serenades Dean Voigt before Christmas vacation.

It's snack time every Friday afternoon at League Lounge. Leader's Rally Luncheon at the Grill has fine showing.

MEN'S UNION PLANNING BOARD

FIRST ROW: Chuck Edwards, Jack Neenan, Paul Clarke, Kenton Ray.
SECOND ROW: Jim Dehnke, Bill Smith, Roy Sturm, Nick Alexander, Orville Riser, Bill Dietrich, Al Spletz, Rocky Russe, Dean Hunkins.

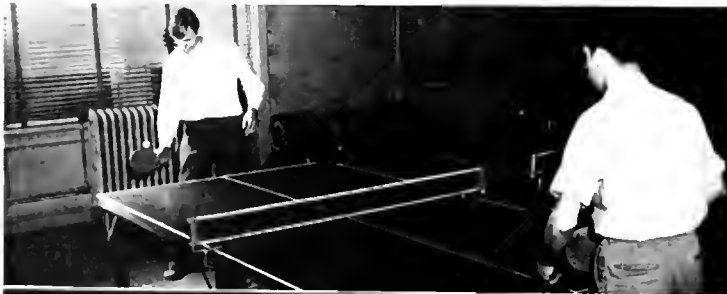

The executive body of the Men's Union, the Men's Union Planning Board, provides a social program for the campus at large and especially for the more than 4,000 men on campus. It functions as the men's administrative body in campus student government and sponsors all-campus traditional events.

The registration hop and the freshman mixer started the activities in September, along with the intramural tournaments in billiards, chess and bridge. October saw over 2,000 students trek to Western Reserve for the annual Migration Day. Homecoming with its gala floats, house decorations and Homecoming Queen was one of the year's highlights. Climaxing the football season, MUPB sponsored Dad's Day, which included a weekend of entertainment.

This year donations were made to YMCA and the Rec Hall to meet expenses and furnish newspapers. $800 was put into the Men's Union Loan Fund.

In the spring the all men's show, the Rodeo, wound up OU's greatest year.

The Men's Union sponsors the men's small sports program, and gives the Homecoming float awards.

OU's War Memorial on the Green is a popular between-classes meeting place.

CAMPUS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

FIRST ROW: Miss Work, Nancy Quackenbush, Dean Hunkins, Dean Voigt, Donna Burton, Miss Appel.
SECOND ROW: Rocky Russo, Paul Clark, Herb Klier, Prof. Nessley, Prof. Krauss.

The Campus Affairs Committee is the official executive body governing extra-curricular life, authorized and recognized by the board of trustees.

Dean Voigt and Dean Hunkins, representatives of the administration, serve as co-chairmen.

The committee supervises allocation of a portion of student activity fees, makes decisions relative to new organizations on campus, and has jurisdiction over rules and regulations of the student body.

C.A.C. also selects the staffs of the Post and the Athena.

Student members include the presidents of Women's League and Men's Union, and the president, first and second vice-presidents of Student Council, the last three elected by student vote according to a system inaugurated at OU in the fall of 1947.

STUDENT COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: Dean Irma Voigt, Rocky Russo, Herbert Klier, Donna Lee Burton, William Dietrich, Dean Hunkins.

SECOND ROW: Betty Smith, Avis Gill, Marty Reed, Pauline Kruse, Nick Alexander, Paul Gapp, Nancy Quackenbush, Becky Leadrach, Nick Mihalik.

Nineteen hundred and forty-eight saw the inauguration of a new democratic era on the campus of Ohio University, with a campus-wide election held in the spring for the offices of president and the two vice-presidents. The council drew up an organizational chart of all governing bodies on campus, and this was edited into the handbook. The student governing body is comprised of the presidents of Men's Union, Women's League, and all other campus organizations including the recently admitted member of W. O. U. N. Acting as advisors are Dean Voigt and Dean Hunkins.

Student Council sponsors dances, student convocations, and the traditional caroling outside Memorial Auditorium. A Sadie Hawkin's Weekend replaced our former Apple-Polishing Weekend this spring, and the Senior Class benefit play, "The Importance of Being Earnest" was presented in November.

Courtesy and Fire Prevention Week both found the interest of the student body, accompanied by a series of articles in the O. U. Post. Definite steps promoting more student representation on the faculty committees were taken, with a student council member now a member of the Grill committee.

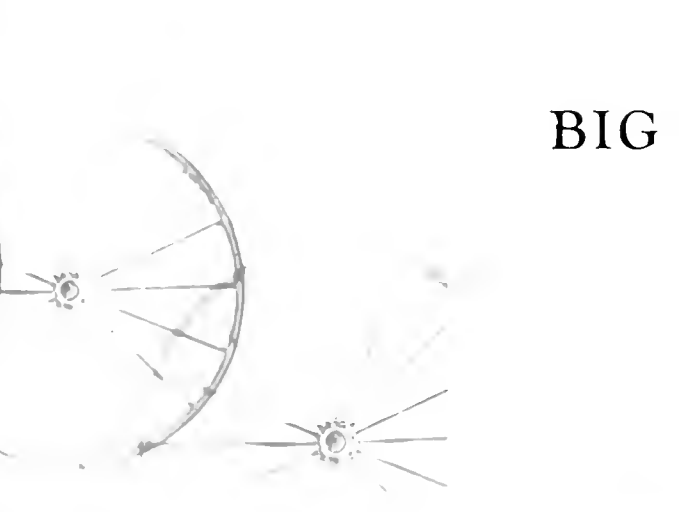

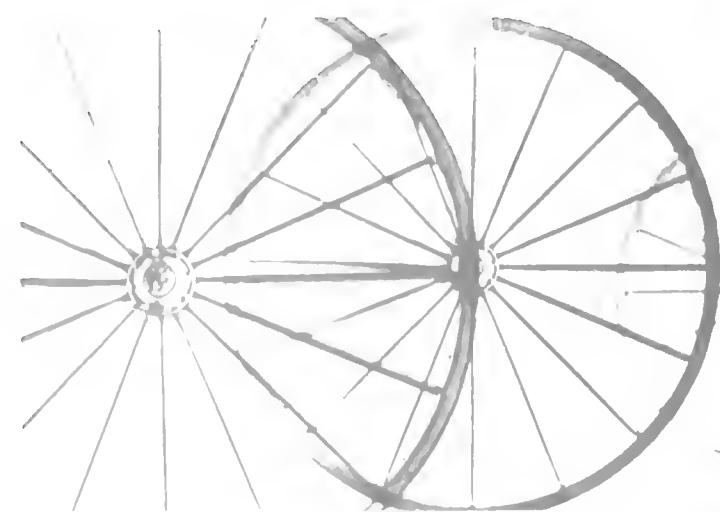

A Recreation Hall Student committee was also set up. A drive for a fund for a new Student Center Building was under way early this spring. Student Council participated actively in the National Students Association.

COLLEGE OF APPLIED SCIENCE

Agriculture, aviation, engineering, home economics, and industrial arts comprise the major divisions of the College of Applied Science, under Dean E. J. Taylor.

Each division has its laboratories where theory is demonstrated and principles are applied. The agriculture department has its farm; aviation has its airport; etc.

Engineering offers curriculum in aeronautical, structural, architectural, civil, electrical, and industrial engineering.

The home economics division offers home economics education, family relationships and child development, foods and nutrition, home economics in business, and textiles and clothing.

A broad and liberal background, fundamentals and their application are the objectives of the curricula of the College. Specialization comes from further training and experience.

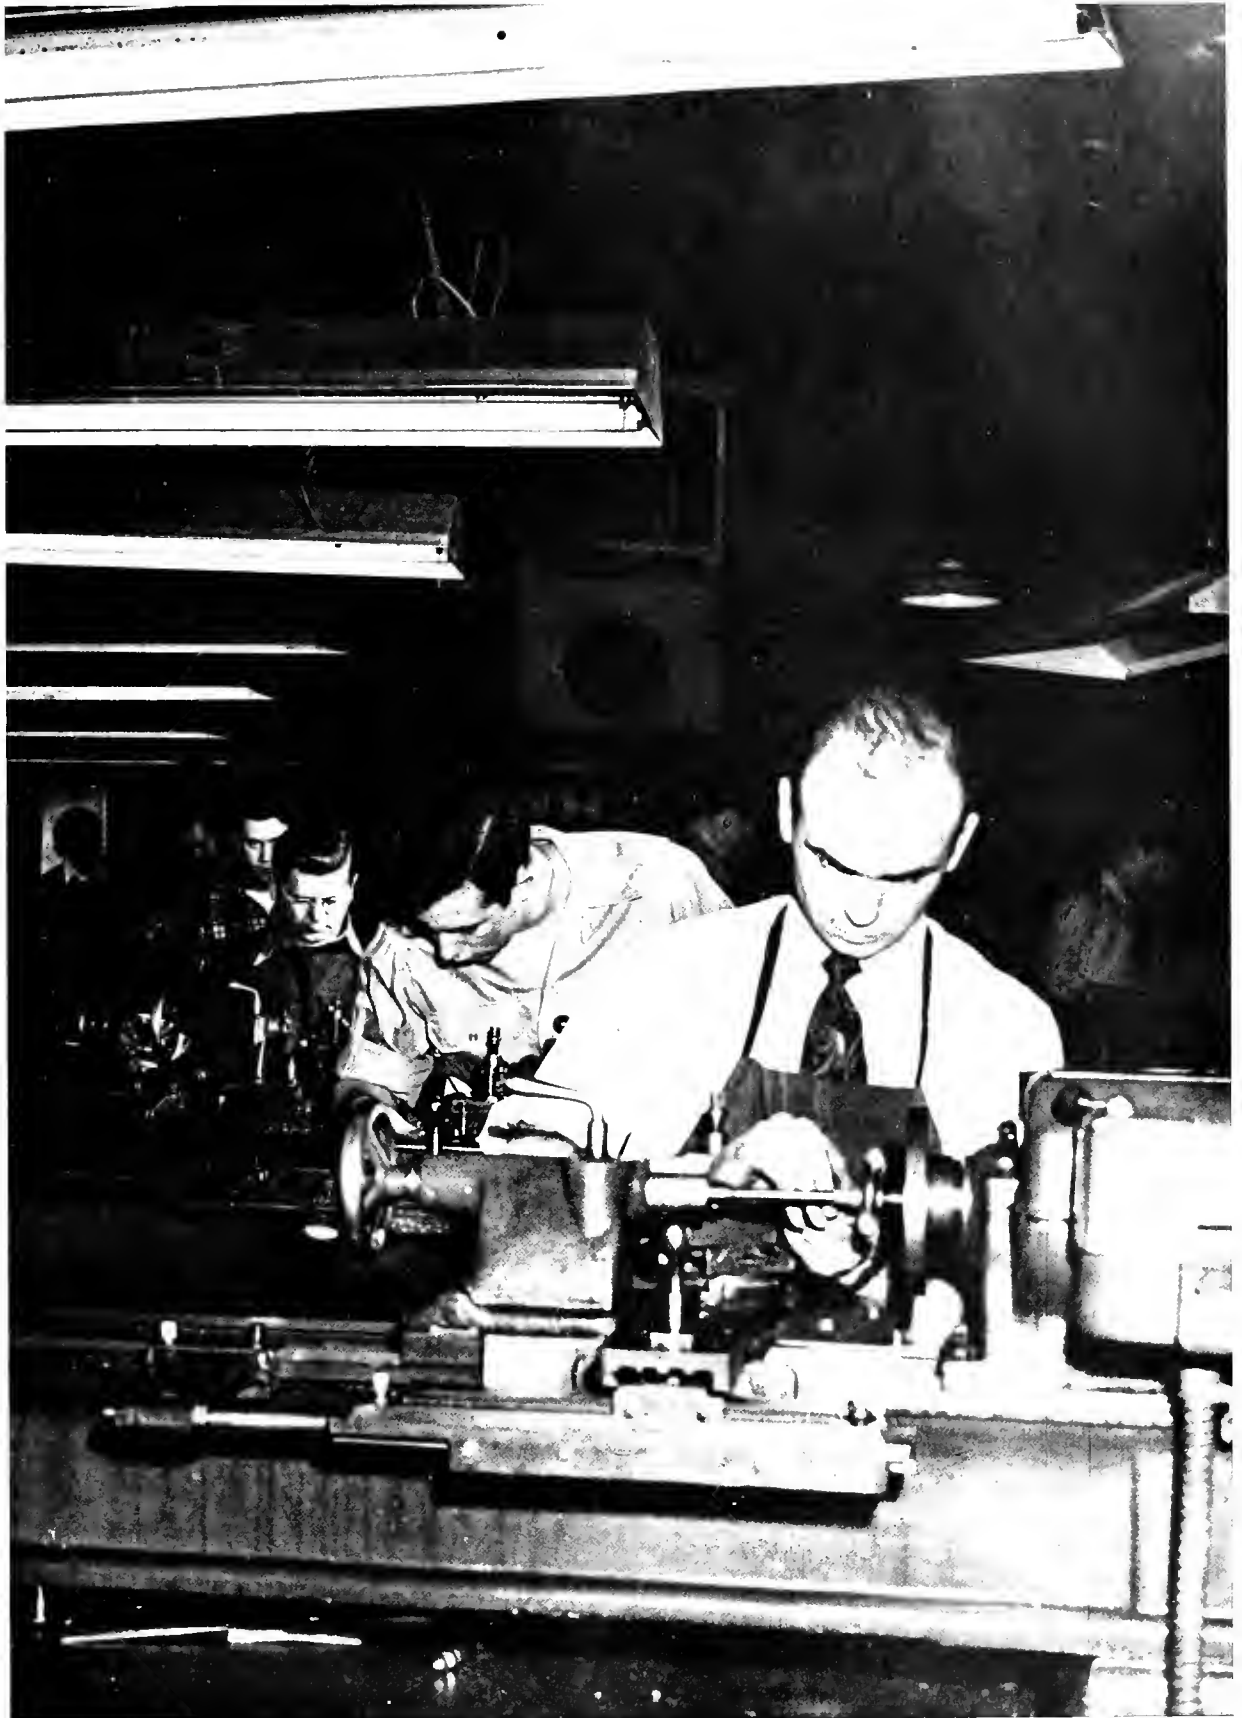

AGRICULTURE: W. W. Wiggin, Robert Ellis, Woodrow W. Wyant.

AVIATION: Ralph N. Smeck.

ENGINEERING: E. H. Gaylord, E. F. Wilsey, George W. Clark, William Gotolski, D. B. Green, O. E. McClure, Richard Selleck, N. D. Thomas, A. A. Nellis, R. C. Wickham, Edgar Godfrey, L. F. Lausche, G. P. Toews.

HOME ECONOMICS: Norma Bennett, Leono J. Calvin, Florence Justin, Alice Lockard, Cora Miller, Marian Morse, Ida Patterson, Kathryn Philson, Vivian M. Roberts, Mary Stalder.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS: Charles R. Kinison, H. W. Humphrey, F. T. Paige, L. V. Calvin, Donald E. Peery.

'48 WAS OU'S GREATEST YEAR! Over 5500 students crowded onto the campus and environs in September and the year's activities were not slow to start. The football squad was already in action and the Post came out the first week. Traditionally fast starters, OU's Greek social groups got off to a rousing start. Pledges were quickly added to the roles and almost as quickly were put to silly tasks.

Trowel, a newcomer to the parade, set its fledglings to measuring Court Street with Scott's thousand sheets.

APPLIED SCIENCE SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Edgar Albaugh, Frank Alexander.
 SECOND ROW: Thomas Andrian, Charles Sandy, Donald Black, Paul Brockert, Carl Brockman, Mary Burkhardt, Carl Cambell.
 THIRD ROW: George Carper, Bob Carr, Florence Casteel, Joseph Caltabiano, Eugene Christie, Norma Clough, Patrick Creedon.

THE PHI KAP PLEDGES threw a white line down the center of the walk from the main gate to Cutler.

But all wasn't silliness for the 24 fraternities and sororities. Biggest contribution to the campus was the sorority pledges' annual Prep Follies, in '48 a stirring review with a minstrel format.

Competition among Greek groups to gain honor in J-Prom King and Queen balloting and in like activities enlivened the campus for pin wearers and independents alike.

APPLIED SCIENCE SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Robert Dunton, Jack Durst, Sarah Dye, Charles Edwards, Alexis Erca, Andrew Essman, Arthur Fattibene.
SECOND ROW: Salvatore Ferraible, Betty Francis, Allen Galeto-vich, Eugene Griffin, Vernon Gina, Bertha Goode, John Goth.

THIRD ROW: Robert Graham, Donald Grah, Joanne Hall, Jeanne Hall, Ruth Hall, R. E. Hamilton, Gene Haney.
FOURTH ROW: Charles Harrison, Richard Holden, Margaret Huck, Ray Huet, Theodore Humnicky, Georgia Kail, Richard Kanehl.

MAKING THEIR FULL CONTRIBUTION to student life in '48 were OU's large organizations dedicated to all-campus activity. The bustling YWCA helped dedicate the new Rec Hall by throwing an open house for freshman women. The gals started off with apples on their heads but came away with acclaims for all the constructive work they did through '48. In this combination of good fun and constructive work they were typical of OU's large groups.

APPLIED SCIENCE SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Christine Kard, Jim Kerman, Robert Krone, Betty Lamb, Betty Jo Lance, John Lena, Richard Ludwinsky
 SECOND ROW: James McKay, Robert Maggass, Dorothy Malok, Helen Masters, Peggy Mayers, Marjorie Mercer, Dick Mackinnon.

THIRD ROW: Dick Miller, Richard Nicholson, Ralph Ogg, William Parks, Richard Parlin, Jack Patterson, Frank Pavlik.
 FOURTH ROW: W. J. Petrovic, David Pichard, Eileen Pickenpugh, Prudence Potter, Robert Paxton, David Progozen, James Provence.

FIRST ROW: Ruth Raney, William Suchodolski, Dorothy Rame, Russell Rauer, Charles Rhodes, Lester Riggle, Edwina Rinehart.
 SECOND ROW: Steven Robbins, Bill Roberts, Demosthene Romanucci, F. W. Rasser, Rocco Russo, Jane Sanborn, Henry Saulnier.
 THIRD ROW: Paul Schuster, Malcolm Sheppard, Thomas Sigman, Alfred Schlitz, William Sprague, Florence Steele, Ray Steiner.

 FIFTH ROW: Glen Von Bargaen, Bob Wallis, Lorraine Weaver, Marilyn Weaver, Joanne Weeks, Francis West, Helen White.
 SIXTH ROW: Doris Williams, Edward Wisley, Doris Wilson, Betty Woodburn, Helene Woodstein, Bill Wright, Melba Jo Yates.

APPLIED SCIENCE JUNIORS

FIRST ROW: John Prisel, Lyle Simmons, Larry Stewart, Claude Kedash, Bob McJinnis, Bill Doody.
SECOND ROW: Jack Hayes, Fred Esterly, Ed Mazzoco, Ted Radasevic, Jim Mutcher at Rec Hall.

FIRST ROW: Glona Stewart, Richard Mann, Robert Bundus, Arthur Grundsacker, Georgia Tucker, Laura Lou Horn, Goldie Schlez.

FIRST ROW: Zbignie Zebrowsky, Colvin Vinson.
SECOND ROW: Lewis Olson, S. T. Dunlaz, John Urban, Melba Pekenpaugh, James Watkins, Bob Baxter, W. A. Curran, at Fountain.

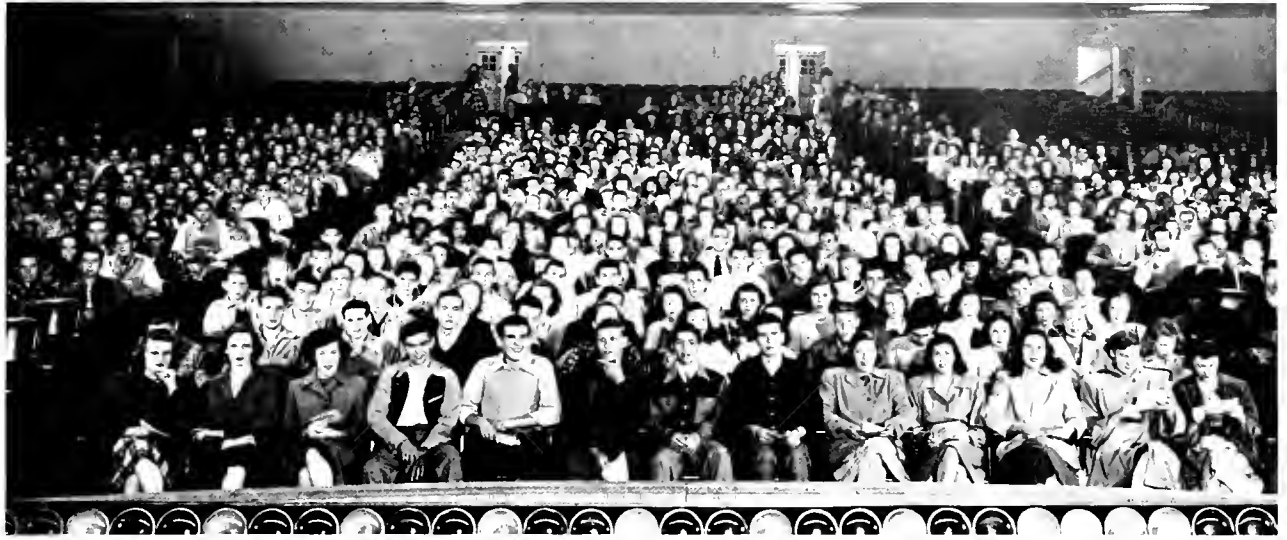

FIRST ROW: Marlene Thompson, J. M. Andrews, Dorothy Hunter.
SECOND ROW: John Burzack, Robert Bartlett, Marilyn Fletcher, Mary Ann Martin, Ralph Lundlin, Lenore Sherman at Rec Hall.

FIRST ROW: Maurice Baroody, Bill Care, T. W. Collins, Fred Romire, Mary Huminsky.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

The aim of the College of Arts and Sciences, under the supervision of Dr. Walter S. Gamertsfelder is to give a broad cultural education with emphasis upon the student's interests and professional objectives. The college is comprised of sixteen departments and offers courses in English, foreign languages, the biological sciences, the physical sciences, and mathematics.

This college offers three degrees: the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science and the Bachelor of Science in Chemistry.

In the College of Arts and Sciences the first two years are spent in acquiring a general background for the concentration on a major in the junior and senior years. In this way, the student obtains a broader education than by just specializing in his major field for four years.

BIG FALL EVENT WAS HOMECOMING, in '48 as in any year. Old grads came back with all the gusto of former years and the float parade was just as unique, just as funny as in the past.

For the second straight year OU tasted defeat on the gridiron, but grads and undergrads tasted nothing but good cheer up and down Court Street throughout the gala celebration. '48 seniors only hope that next year they can come back for Homecoming.

ARTS AND SCIENCES SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Julia Adam, Nick Alexander, Carl Algozzina, Marian Anderson, Dorene Baer, Richard Barlow, Betty Brown.
SECOND ROW: Eugene Birke, Mary Calkins, Jane Campbell, David

Cassat, John Clark, Bob Cleland, Cliff Cooley.
THIRD ROW: Patricia Conner, Barbara Criswell, Geraldine DeMarco, Jean Dow, Catherine Drake, Joan Dunlap, Joan Elswit.

'48 WAS A GREAT YEAR for OU's multitude of departmental clubs where the guys and girls could talk shop in their spare time. Biggest group was the OU Engineers who gathered new members at a mixer for the slide rule and transit lads.

Almost every major course of study was represented in these out-of-class groups wherein student and professor let down their hair for man-to-man discussions of the "problems in our field."

ARTS AND SCIENCES SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Ross Evans, Don Fahnstock.
 SECOND ROW: Louis Foda, Benny Fondi, Louise Fowler, Lucille Fowler, Ella Franklin, Renee Glickman, Evelyn Greder.
 THIRD ROW: June Gruber, Jim Hallett, Mary Jo Hauk, Earl Hollinshead, Paul Hutchinson, Basil Hurley, Shirley Inbender.
 FOURTH ROW: Richard Juvancic, Geraldine Kavahr, Carol Kibler, Norma Lee Khine, Estelle Krupnick, Jean Kyle, Pierce LaLor.

SCHOOL SPIRIT IN '48 was NOT represented by the photo the camera boy couldn't resist snapping. If two men sat through a rainy junior varsity football game....that's great. Cheers were loud and long and there were times during basketball season when it seemed that the roof would raise to the roar of 2,500 OU throats urging the team on for Alma Mater. OU might have had cause to reprove itself on school spirit at other times, but not in '48.

ARTS AND SCIENCES SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Jack Lynch, Becky Ladrach, David Levine, Edwin Link, Minnie Lynn, Jean Muek, Gloria Martin.
 SECOND ROW: Beverly McCarter, Jeanne McConaughy, Esther McQuam, Julian McQuiston, Charles McVay, Harnet Melcher, Phyllis Milner.

THIRD ROW: John Miller, Mary Myers, Sylvia Olurferst, Joy Patterson, Estelle Pavloff, Edith Perloff, Cynthia Pettinall.
 FOURTH ROW: Pauline Pickering, Betty Huntington, Wilber Porterfield, Nancy Quackenbush, Janice Raus, Dudley Rolla, Luther Rhine.

THE AVERAGE OF OU'S STUDENT BODY was probably at its highest in '48, but the fellows and girls could still go collegiate and even childlike for their kicks. The first snow had hardly fallen before front lawns sported snow men like Pierce Cottage's and Phi Beta pre-med majors slid down East Hill on their posteriors.

The snow made for a lot of laughs and a Post reporter even spotted the president doing a little sliding.

ARTS AND SCIENCES SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Barbara Rosenberg, Ruth Sauerman, Margaret Sayles, Barbara Sedwick, Margaret Sheard, Nancy Smetts, Joe Sparks.
 SECOND ROW: Helene Spaldo, Coover L. Staats, Mary Stanton, Ella Starin, Harriett Stine, Hedy Strauss, Marjorie Tarlow.

THIRD ROW: John Thompson, Bob Towner, William Trimale, Julia Utrecht, Evelyn Vendnska, Grace Walzer.
 FOURTH ROW: Shirley Weinstein, Barbara Werner, Doris Wheeler, Ellis Yelton, William Yongman, Dave Zeile, Joseph Zieba.

At Glen's Diner we found Don Watkins, Roy Blinn, Dick Wilcox, Ralph Minck, Dick McGary, Frank Brown, Nellie Brown, Leota Marthey, Carroll McDowell.

COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

The largest field of interest of OU veterans is the College of Commerce. It is under the supervision of A. H. Armbruster, who became director in 1934.

The college requires a broad background and specialized competence. It offers three degrees: Bachelor of Science in Journalism, Bachelor of Science in Commerce, and Bachelor of Science in Secretarial Studies.

Students seeking a degree in Commerce may specialize in a wide range of fields including accounting, advertising, banking, business law, pre-law school preparation, economics, finance, labor, personnel or industrial management, marketing, taxation, or statistics.

The School of Commerce provides excellent opportunities for those who wish to follow commercial activities and offers many benefits to the average citizen in preparing him better to handle his own financial affairs.

'48 WAS A YEAR OF CHANGING STYLES

for America and OU's campus was no exception. The "New Look" for the coeds was slow in developing but after Christmas it was as firmly established on College Street as on Fifth Avenue.

To show the variety of coed styles, some of the shutter clickers got a passel of femmes to pose in front of Howard. Soon afterwards there came an eruption on the male side. Beating Esquire to the punch —

OU STALWARTS CLEANED LOCAL HAB-ERDASHERIES of golf knickers and caps and full length argyle hose. An added filip was the shoulder holster for.

So while OU's women were led by fashion experts the men set their own new fashion and for a time gave the campus many a laugh.

Seriously, OU became more clothes conscious in '48 and a return to formal wear at dances was but one trend. But with all the talk about New Look and Old Look and Bold
Look, sweaters and slacks and skirts remained most popular classroom wear.

COMMERCE SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Thomas Conroy, Bill Cowden, Dale Crites, Ray Cross,
S. R. Curtis, John Dalton, Charles Dautel.
SECOND ROW: Robert Darling, J. A. Davis, Max Devis, Jack

Paul Ench, Edith Ettinger, Donald Evans, Donald Fobes.
FOURTH ROW: Charles Faulkner, Grant Ferguson, Margaret
Beyer, Bernard Fiering, Raymond Fisher, David Flynn, Harvey Freedman.

SINCE JOHN C. BAKER'S COMING to the helm, OU has been climbing upward and '48 was another step in the rise. Not wholly indicative of curriculum changes, but certainly interesting, was the change of pace that sent men to flapjack flipping in Home Economics and women to hammering nails in Industrial Arts.

OU men and women continued to take coveted academic honors and seniors had the added incentive of trying to cop one of the special scholarships provided by the OU Fund.

COMMERCE SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Richard Gardner, James Gastan, Kenneth Geiger, Frank Gettles, Betty Ann Glenn, Dwight Goode, Kaye Griffin.
 SECOND ROW: Ivan Grissman, Arnold Grunther, Edwin Gutt, William Hackstuhl, Jacob Hager, Glen Hambel, Howard Happer.

THIRD ROW: William Hasselbach, Hollis Haughey, James Herr, William Herron, William Henry, Samuel Hoffman, Frank Hudson.
 FOURTH ROW: Glenn Humphrey, David Jaffe, Sue Jarvela, Betty Lou Jands, Louise Johnston, Edwin Jones, Mary Josten.

FIVE OUTSTANDING SENIORS were afforded an opportunity to meet important people in their field and to study new developments through the OU Fund.

Many men and women of '48 were named to Phi Beta Kappa and other honoraries but most important was that any degree from OU in '48 came as the result of finishing the stiffest requirements in the school's history. President Baker's policy was beginning to pay off.

COMMERCE SENIORS

FIRST ROW: Herbert Kler, Joseph Knapik, Lois Kusta, David Kreutz, Gner Leach, Paul Lechman, Thomas Lenahan.

SECOND ROW: Wilbert Leopold, Sally Link, Merle Lockwood, Bruce Long, Robert McCreanor, Patricia McKee, William Maddax.

THIRD ROW: Joyce Martindill, Edward Martyniak, Charles Matheny, Robert Max, Marilyn Maxwell, Burton Melcher, Jean Mickle.

FOURTH ROW: Bernard Miller, Harry Millhoff, Donald Mills, Chester Mitchell, Jack Mitenbiller, William Morrison, Samuel Munn.

EVEN WHILE BATTLING INFLATION on $65 or $90 or thin checks from home, OU didn't forget the less fortunate in '48. Typical of campus reaction to charity drives was WOUN's take-over of the March of Dimes drive for the city of Athens. All drives met their goals and the campus Red Cross chapter continued its fine work both on and off campus. It couldn't be said of OU in '48 that it was selfish. It was anything but.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

The College of Education, under the Dean E. R. Collins, prepares men and women to enter the teaching field. All colleges of the university contribute to the development of a broad and liberal education, but College of Education develops a specialized skill and gives professional and vocational direction to these cooperative programs.

Preparation is given for teaching in kindergarten, elementary and high schools. The college has superior facilities for student teaching, giving increasing attention to audio-visual aids and instructing students in their use.

Co-operation with other colleges of the University helps give many students certificates for teaching, even though they are not enrolled in the College of Education.

The College emphasizes nutrition, child development, and conservation education in its curricula.

FOOD WAS NO LESS AN INTEREST in '48 than it was in other years. The sandwich man on the dormitory and Greek house route was still the most popular man on campus at 10:30 at night.

The food situation which had become desperate in '47 was solved for us this year and there were no lines on Court Street in '48. The usual campus hangouts, Blackmore's, Quick's, Jake's and the Rainbow were always jumping with stomach liners and people even ordered food occasionally in the Esquire and Tavern.

FORTUNATELY FOR THIN WALLETS the campus still had a good number of open houses and characters like the fellow at right studied bulletin boards closely to learn where there was a chance of a free snack.

Certainly in this important item OU had a plenty in '48 and even with prices high every-one found enough change to stow away a hamburger or chocolate shake every so often.

EDUCATION SENIORS

GREATEST PHASE OF A GREAT YEAR was the progress in OU's building program. In '48, while still being served by temporary lifesavers like the Rec Hall and office building, a new Chemistry Building was unveiled and a new dormitory was on the road to completion.

4,000 students John Hancocked petitions for a new student center building and in the spring plans were announced for completion of Men's Dorm and erection of engineering and fine arts buildings.

 FIFTH ROW: Ed Polanski, Marilyn Press, Eileen Price, Martha Reed, Ruth Rhode, C. J. Rhodes, Loren Ridge.

OU WAS ON THE MARCH, reaching out, and plans were laid to build a roadway from the campus to Lower Campus thereby connecting valuable acreage to the Green.

In '48 we marveled at a lot of OU advances, but none was greater than the moves to give OU one of the best physical plants of any institution of comparable size.

COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

The College of Fine Arts, under the direction of Dean Earl C. Seigfried, includes music, dramatic art, speech, speech correction, radio, painting, design, architecture, and photography. In addition to classroom and laboratory instruction, the college offers an extensive program of plays, radio broadcasts, concerts, and exhibitions.

This year the school of dramatics presented four major theatrical productions, "The Late George Apley", "Moor Born", "Skin of Our Teeth", and "Philadelphia Story".

WOUN, the Ohio University broadcasting station, expanded its operations this year. All home varsity basketball games, as well as the music of the dance bands appearing in Athens, were broadcast in addition to the regular scheduled programs.

VISITORS WERE NO RARITY in '48. Almost every department had people come in from outside to lend their experience. A visitor of long standing was visiting lecturer Gerda Peterich in photography, and like the others, she left behind her many a valuable tip.

Convocation speakers of quality were also plentiful in '48 and Governor Herbert topped the list by speaking at Cutler Rededication ceremonies.

These added pleasures were fitting icing to a great year.

VETS'

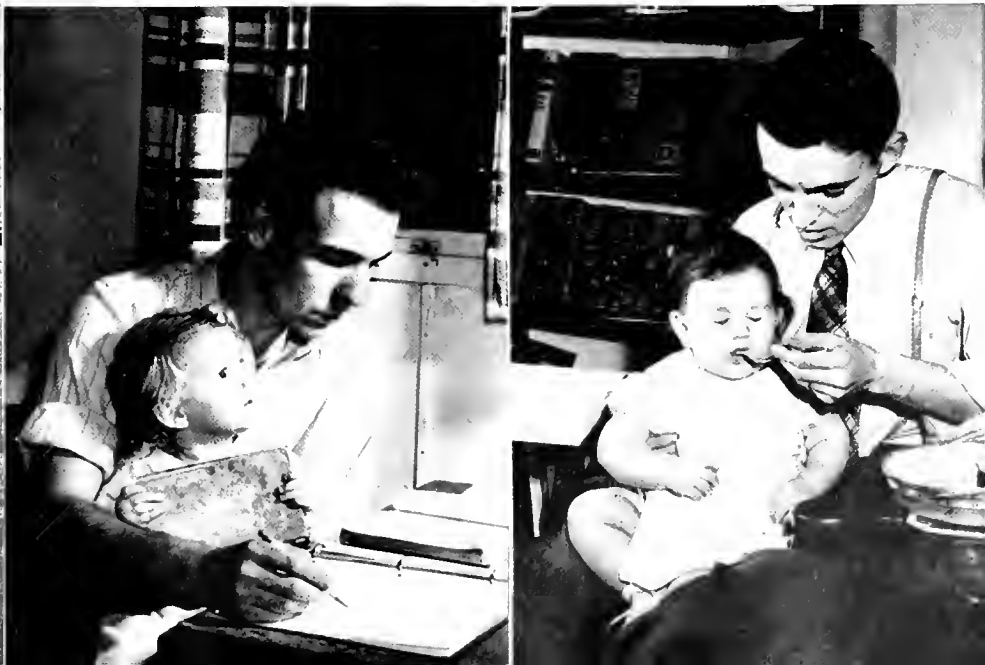

Since the advent of the student veteran and his family, the complexion of the campus has changed somewhat. Temporary dwellings have mushroomed in every available building space, and Athens' stores are filled with young wives and mothers doing their daily shopping. Joe College now has a new worry - taking care of his family.

FAMILIES

It's not an unusual sight to see a student father studying his economics while walking his baby, or his wife hurrying home from history class to start dinner. Baby sitters are at a premium, and budgets (family size) are the biggest worry.

ATHLETICS . . .

In their 1947-48 season the OU cagers won ten of twenty games played.

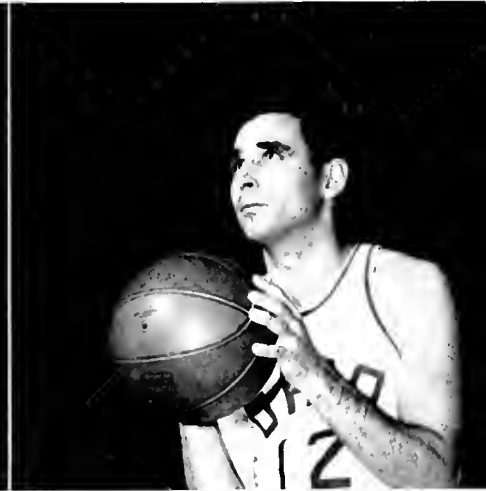

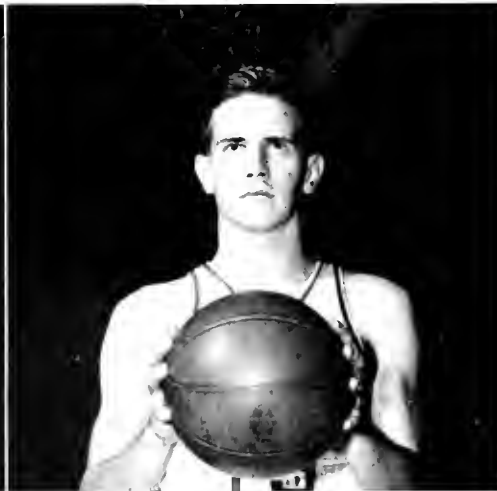

Coach Trautwein led the Bobcat basketball team through a stiff schedule with ten wins and ten losses despite numerous injuries to his players. In Mid-American Conference competition, the Bobcats finished third behind Cincinnati and Butler by winning four out of eight conference games. Butler was the only team to defeat the Bobcats twice during the season. The OU team posted double victories over both the Miami and Ohio Wesleyan squads. The Bobcats were led through the season by three seniors, Dick Shrider, Mark Wylie, and Harry Gordon. All three of these men were accorded national honors. Shrider had a 16.4 points scored per game average to place him eighteenth in the nation. Wylie, who completed 32 consecutive foul shots during one stretch of the season, finished third in the nation among major colleges in the foul shooting department. He completed 88 out of 102 tries for a percentage of .863.

Bob Dickey

Harry Gordon finished second in the nation in average personal fouls committed per game with a percentage of 3.95. Shrider led the Bobcats in total points scored with 311 in 19 games. Wylie totaled 170 points for second place among the Bobcat players. Harry Gordon was the only member of the squad to start in all of the Bobcat games. In the previous season, he had started in all of the Bobcat's 23 games. Gene Kinsley was the only other player who saw action in all of the Bobcat's games during the season, but he failed to start in all of them.

A resume of the season shows that the Bobcats won their first three games beating Dayton, Marietta, and Xavier. Bowling Green handed the Bobcats their first loss, Miami and Wayne were both easy victories for the O. U. team, a great Kentucky team beat O. U. by 22 points, Western Reserve beat us by one point, we beat Ohio Wesleyan and then lost to Akron by 2 points. Butler won two games over the Bobcats, Xavier avenged their earlier defeat, and the Bobcats then won over Miami, Western Reserve, and Ohio Wesleyan. They split a pair of games with Cincinnati and suffered defeats at the hands of Wayne, and Marietta.

OU 34, Ohio Northern 0.

Ohio Northern proved to be no match for the Bobcats who were playing their first game under the coaching of Harold Wise. The Bobcats new style of attack, the T formation, was good for five touchdowns and four extra points. Risser, Schultz, Luske and Butler made touchdowns for OU; Butler scoring twice. Sudnick made good on 4 of his 5 attempted conversions.

OU 14, Butler 7.

The Bobcats had to come from behind in the third quarter by scoring twice and adding the extra points to win this game. This game played at Ohio Stadium was the first game of the newly formed Mid American Conference. The Butler score came on a 67 yard screen kick off. Ohio scored on a pass from Mills to Brady and a 12 yard pass by Butler. Sudnick converted twice for OU.

A large throng of Bobcats rooters ventured to Cleveland to see the Migration Day Game. Reserve scored three quick touchdowns in five minutes of the third period to overcome the Bobcats. In the first half, Brady scored for Ohio on a plunge, and Sudnick converted. OU penalties and fumbles, plus a blocked kick set up all of the Reserve scores.

OU 0. Bowling Green 2.

A blocked kick spelled defeat for the Bobcats on a rain-soaked Bowling Green field. Brady's goal line kick was blocked by Bowling Green and went out of the end zone to give them two points. In the third period Ohio recovered a Bowling Green fumble on the 26. After working the ball down to the 9 yard line, Ohio tried a field goal on fourth down. The attempt by Sudnick was wide.

The Miami Redskins handed the Bobcats their third straight loss. The Redskins scored right after taking the opening kickoff. A completed pass marked their first score. An end sweep in the second quarter was good for their second touchdown. The Miami team, which went on to win the Sun Bowl Game on New Year's Day in Texas, completely outplayed the Bobcats.

OU 0, Cincinnati 34.

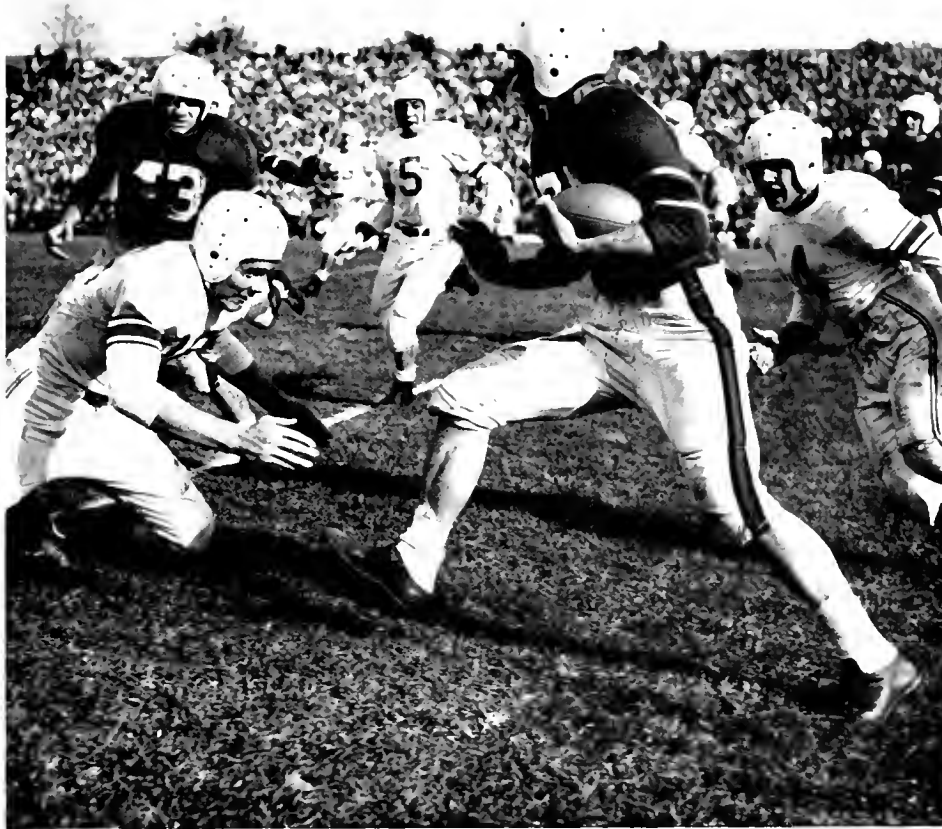

A capacity OU Homecoming crowd at the Stadium saw the Bearcats of Cincinnati snap a no-win jinx which had extended for more than 50 years. The Bearcats touchdowns mounted as they repeatedly pierced the Bobcats defenses and plunged over for scores. Another Bearcat touchdown resulted from an intercepted Bobcat pass. The Bearcats' speed and strength was too much for the Bobcats to overcome.

After holding a seven point lead throughout three quarters the Bobcats had to settle for a tie. The Bishops outplayed OU in almost every department. A line plunge by Brady in the first quarter gave the Bobcats six points and Sudnick converted for the seventh. The Bishops tied the score in the third period on an 18 yard reverse; the kick for extra point was good.

OU 6, Dayton 18.

The Dayton Flyers emerged victorious from this battle despite the rain and mud. An intercepted OU lateral in the first period set up the Flyers first score. The second Dayton touchdown resulted from a 24 yard pass. In the fourth period Brady rammed over the center from the Dayton two yard line for the Bobcats only score. The extra point attempt was wide.

OU 12, Xavier 7.

In their last game of the season, the Bobcats pulled an upset by winning over the Musketeers of Xavier University. A Dad's Day crowd was able to see a good end to a poor season for the Bobcats. Ours brought the second half kickoff back to their own 25 yard line. In two running plays, Sudnick carried the pigskin to the Xavier 27 yard line. Brady plunged over for the first Bobcat score. Ohio scored again the next time they got possession of the ball. In one of the most thrilling runs of the season, Fisher, stepping back into the end zone to kick, took the punt from center and raced 104 yards behind beautiful blocking to the Bobcats second score. McQuade of Xavier then put on a fine display of passing and completed a pass for the Xavier touchdown. McQuade completed 13 out of 26 passes for 145 yards and threw the Bobcats plenty of trouble all afternoon.

In their 1947 season the Bobcats had a new coach, a new style of attack, and new uniforms. Harold Wise was the new coach appointed after Don Peden resigned last year. The new style of attack introduced by Coach Wise was the T formation. The Bobcats playing a tough nine game schedule won three games, tied one, and lost five. In Mid-American Conference play the Bobcats finished in a tie for fourth place with the Butler Bulldogs. King Brady led the team in total offensive yards gained with Chris Stefan placing second. In yards gained by rushing Brady and Stefan again placed first and second, respectively. Pete Risser led the pass receivers in the number of passes caught and also in the number of yards gained on passes. Brady led the Bobcats in points scored with Bitler placing second. In the passing department, Mills led in attempts, completions, and yards gained by forward passes. Stan Zylowski placed second in this department.

Coach Wise

In his first season Coach Wise introduced the T formation. Though this was not the complete solution, OU enjoyed a relatively successful season.

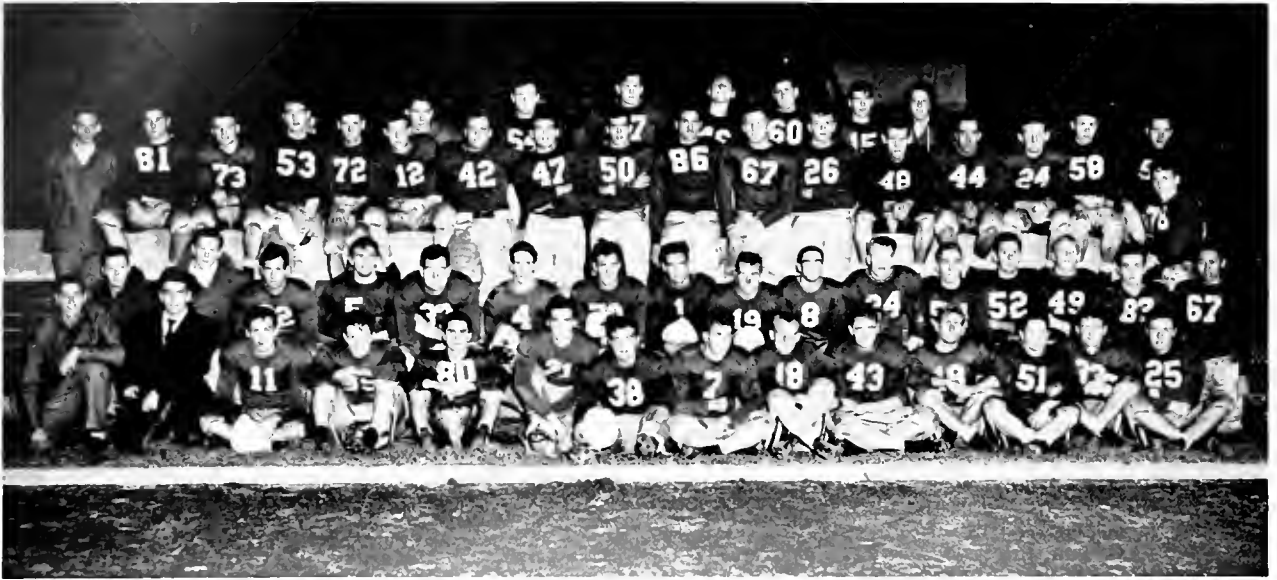

MIGRATION DAY - - - Bobcat rooters trekked a practically en masse to Cleveland for the battle with Western Reserve. Although OU lost, parties and a terrific dance sparked the after-game frolics, and all made for a glorious weekend in the big town.

The Campus Religious Council performs a valuable campus-wide service as co-ordinator of the activities of the ten student religious groups. Member organizations are Hillel, Disciples Foundation, Christian Science Organization, Canterbury Club, Lutheran Students Association, Wesley Foundation, Westminster Fellowship, Newman Club, Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. Each organization may be represented by two students and an adult advisor.

Outstanding in service on the campus this year was the CRC-sponsored World Student Service Fund. Headed by Nick Mihalik, this fund helps needy students in all parts of the world to gain an education. The Brotherhood Weekend held on Feb. 14 and 15 featured a movie, "Seeds of Destiny," and a fellowship supper for all student religious groups on campus. The CRC also gave an all-campus party during fall registration week.

Under the able direction of Murray I. Rothman, the Hillel Foundation, organized for the benefit of the Jewish students of Ohio University, put forth with its usual vitality and produced a year packed full with well-rounded activities.

The "June in January" Formal and "Hillel's Apoppin" were two early memorable affairs on the agenda. Many will also recall being a "Vanderbilt for a day" at the W. R. A. Carnival open to the whole campus.

Among Hillel's special interest groups, the newly formed "Photography" and "Meet Your Professor" merit recognition. A dark room has been built in Hillel's basement for the benefit of the members.

Hillel Executive Committee: FIRST ROW: Gunter Jacobson, Florence Lange, Sylvia Oberterst, Rabbi Murray I. Rothman, Leonard Small, Joan Sherman, LeRoy LaVine. SECOND ROW: Joseph Knslov, John Clawsoy, Seeman Rose, Joseph Schechtman, Ede Ernest, Estelle Kalish, Adele Rappaport, Lois Brien.

Wesley Foundation, a national movement for students of Methodist preference, seeks to provide for the spiritual needs of its members through organized fellowship. The program includes a university student class, Sunday morning worship, and Sunday evening fellowship suppers and vespers.

Students, through an entirely student planned program, participate in the publication of the bi-weekly newspaper "Torch", the student choir, frequent deputations to other churches, intramural athletics, weekly entertainment trips to the Athens County Home, Friday afternoon "Pop-In," weekend parties, open houses, and the annual banquet and dance.

This year's program has had for its theme "We Three", referring to God, ourselves, and others—united through faith, freedom, and action.

Members of the Wesley Foundation relax in the lounge of the Methodist Church.

Sunday night suppers before vespers are an important part of the Wesley program.

WESLEY PLAYERS

Wesley Players at Ohio University is actually Omega Chapter of the National Society of Wesley Players, which was founded at the University of Illinois in 1924, and established at Ohio University in 1939.

The year brought a large program that included presentations of "Where Love Is" by B. Iden Payne; "Dust of the Road" by Kenneth Goodman; "John Doe" by Bernard Dryer; "The Great Choice" by Fred Eastman; "The Color Line" by Irene MacNair; and "The Terrible Meek" by Charles Hann Kennedy. These productions were introduced at Memorial Auditorium, the Presbyterian Church, Methodist Church, and in various Southeastern Ohio communities.

"Open Mine Eyes" has been the theme of this year's program of Kappa Phi, National Methodist Women's Fraternity, which endeavors to promote both spiritual and social fellowship among its members. The program of Phi, the local chapter, includes outside speakers, devotions, and discussions.

This year Project Meetings were introduced into the program. Such organizations as Sheltering Arms Hospital, the State Hospital, the Children's Home, rural schools, and the Red Cross have benefited through the work done at these Project Meetings. The highlight of the year was the Christmas party for the children of Connett Grade School.

The social activities of the club revolved around the traditional Rose Tea, the Christmas party, Upper Room Supper, and the formal initiation banquet.

THIRD ROW: D. E. Carnes, M. J. Ruhl, Neil Gibbins, I. G. Curry, R. L. Gaus, Edward Brehm, Bob McCoy, Wilbur Stell, R. W. Gregory, V. C. Talley, Charles Lattanwer.

Meetings of Delta Sigma Theta are well attended.

Delta Sigma Theta, national religious fraternity, provides fellowship among men of Methodist preferences, stimulates high moral standards, and encourages participation in all Wesley Foundation activities.

The bi-weekly meetings of this active fraternity include discussions of religious and secular problems, integrated with a well-rounded social program.

The fraternity has increased its membership considerably, and in so doing has blossomed into a well-representative body of men of Methodist preference.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASS'N

FIRST ROW: V. Fisher, M. Sifers, P. Moore, G. Gibson, S. Hinkle, J. Cross.
SECOND ROW: W. Eirlsizer, Dean Voigt, M. Juvinall, P. Faulkner,

THIRD ROW: M. Ham, J. Gecsy, B. Weber, N. Kodes, M. Wodorzak, M. Malham, B. Tygard, L. Sumpson, K. Kimpel, B. Cnswell.

The Young Women's Christian Association on the O. U. campus began its biggest year with its semi-annual freshman party, followed by a successful membership drive and the traditional recognition service for the new members early this fall.

Big and little sister parties were frequent throughout the year. December saw the annual Christmas party, highlighting the Yuletide festivities.

Early in the spring "Prep Follies" was presented and later in the spring came the traditional "Easter Filling of the Cross". A presentation by the retreat, revived this year, along with one in the fall, was the installation of officers.

The work in the mining towns, the children's home, and increased participation in Salvation Army work made 1948 a year of YW achievements; with its influence felt both in its social services and in the effect on OU women.

Joining ... n ... ar ... the piano is a popular afternoon pastime

Westminster Fellowship, the Presbyterian youth organization, provides a meeting place for students of Presbyterian preference; maintaining its two-fold purpose to acquire a dynamic faith through Christian experience, worship, and study; and to further the expression of this faith through word and deed.

The entirely student-planned program is welded into an active social calendar. This calendar, combining religious, educational and social aspects, includes inter-fellowship forums, Wednesday evening "Snack Hour", Westminster Choir, and upper-house suppers.

The highlight of Westminster activities for the year was their annual Spring Retreat, and their first semi-formal dance.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

FRONT ROW: J. Courtwright, W. Murphy, G. Markley, Pres., P. Kitinoja, R. Christel, H. Winkel.
 SECOND ROW: P. Auping, R. Bishop, N. Shupe, Rev. Mohrhoff, C. Roberts, H. Frank, H. Hiesel.
 THIRD ROW: R. Rey, R. Williams, R. Sovich, E. Benko, P. Happ, J. Anderson, Prof. Ray, W. Hedl.
 FOURTH ROW: R. Waltz, E. Schmidt, S. Maier, S. Janitzki, D. Gemke, A. Anderson, M. Malmah, M. Wodarczek, R. Kranz, M. B. Kistler, J. Moorhause, P. Biewener.

It is the aim of the Lutheran Student Association to further the religious ideals, and assist in the social relationships of all Lutheran students, and to keep these students in contact with their church.

During the past school year the L.S.A. provided regular Sunday afternoon church services, and two communion services for all the Lutheran students on the campus.

At the combined business and social meetings of the organization, which are held bi-weekly, interesting discussions on religious questions were conducted, as well as other entertainment and lunches.

Other social events of the year included hikes and wiener roasts.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club is an organization which deepens and enriches the spiritual lives of its members through a balanced program of religious, intellectual, and social activities, and welds the Catholic students into a common union.

Alternate bi-monthly meetings feature a religious and educational program of open discussions, with a social program of juke-box parties and dances.

These religious and educational discussions were highlighted by the active participation of Father O'Connel, while the social spotlight fell on the presentation of night life at "Club 99".

One of over 500 Catholic clubs in the United States and Canada, the Newman Club has greatly promoted culture and fellowship among the Catholic students at Ohio University.

FRONT ROW: B. Pizzuli, E. Miller, E. Hose, L. DeSouza, J. Manning, P. Koval, J. Sabol.
 SECOND ROW: R. Hertzler, R. Judy, E. Law, J. Batcho, F. Rocco, J. E. Gardner, B. Supinski, P. Creedon, A. Essman.

DISCIPLES FOUNDATION

Disciples Foundation is an organization of students and townfolk of Christian preference, who are dedicated to the fulfillment of a religious, as well as a cultural and social life for all its members.

The club endeavors to carry out this purpose through a wellrounded social and religious calendar. The religious program, consisting of vesper services and evening services, meets the religious needs of its members; while its hikes, picnics, and annual retreat to Lake Hope provide for the social needs of its members.

The club encourages full participation in all its activities, welcomes new people to its folds, and stimulates among all its members a deeper interest in their faith.

FIRST ROW: Rev. Moffett, A. Dresher, E. Singleton, M. Moffet, R. Hutson, B. Winn, A. Read, A. Frey, C. Glover, L. Heit.
 SECOND ROW: H. Thorley, J. Fisher, B. Davis, R. Blower, K. Hawk, D. Stalder, D. Schoemyer, J. Wigan, J. Miller, M. Miller, V. Hoffman, D. McFarland, J. Kirkpatrick.
 THIRD ROW: N. Gary, D. Huthrie, M. Hoon, M. Lee, E. Shaefer, H. Crowl, C. Gurney, D. Hickle, N. Cameron, M. Dlowers, S. Glover, B. Dowling.

KAPPA BETA

FIRST ROW: Mary Newton, Ana Dresher, Lois Heit, Jean Finer, Dorothy Barham, Marianne Garver, Ellis M. Shaefer.
 SECOND ROW: Margaret Newton, Martha Robertson, Alice Davies, Donna Guthrie, Mabel Lee, Ruth Hall, Beverly Davis, Audra Mae Frey, Virginia Hoffman, Rachel Giffin.

Kappa Beta is the national fellowship of university women of the Disciples of Christ, and is founded on the ideal of developing true Christian character in womanhood, through a program of religious and social activities.

These religious activities of vespers at meetings comprise an important part of Kappa Beta's program, but they are linked with an adequate social activity calendar of informal teas and get-togethers.

The club also takes part in the annual weekend retreat to Lake Hope by the entire Disciples Foundation.

The motto of the club—"Stir up the gift of God within you"—acts as a challenge and a guide to all its members for the building of true Christian character in womanhood.

PHI CHI DELTA

FIRST ROW: E. Baeckler, D. Standing, J. Beiner, M. Twinem, A. Shultz, M. Hauk, D. Hines, J. Zasio, J. Bryant, J. Barker, L. Anderson.
 SECOND ROW: K. Adams, B. Chapman, B. Ewing, J. Waller, T. Shott, J. Brown, J. Issenman, D. Deitzer, J. Wilkinson, E. Morgan, F. Casteel,

C. Landisar.
 THIRD ROW: J. Warden, V. Houchin, M. Hickman, L. Haastine, R. Harter, J. Collis, D. Santavicca, J. Ross, E. Yoe, B. Webster, R. Gilbert.

The organization for women of Protestant faith, Presbyterian preference, is Phi Chi Delta, and is built on the promotion of religious, educational, and spiritual growth of its members.

Bi-monthly meetings endeavor to further this growth through discussions, forums, book reviews, and outside speakers, and to promote closer fellowship through teas and informal get-togethers.

The "Mammy Party", and the "Backwards Party", headlined the social program for the year, but were supplemented socially by the formal initiation banquet, and the senior farewell party.

Phi Chi Delta works in a year-long exchange program with Kappa Beta, and Kappa Phi, for the building of a better Christian world.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE ORGANIZATION

The Christian Science Organization at Ohio University offers all students interested in this religion a chance to become better acquainted with Christian Science. It also provides an opportunity for the university public to attend the lectures on Christian Science.

Although the purpose of the organization is primarily religious; social functions, which included wienie-roasts and get-together parties, were also part of the year's program.

We boosted to almost double the attendance of our student-prepared meetings, which we held weekly instead of semi-monthly, as was done last year. These meetings were held in McGuffey Hall.

FIRST ROW: Charleen Searth, Robert Howell, Bertha Stevens.
SECOND ROW: Jean Ellen Heinton, Ginny Wavro, Becky Cladwell, Patricia Margan, Pres.
THIRD ROW: Evenette Tompkins, Jared Owens, Bill Meyer, Paul Herman.

INTERDORM COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: W. W. by Janapous, Gerry Kavalir, Margaret Huck, Nancy Troup.
SECOND ROW: Mary Hees, Estelle Kalish, Betty Francis, Joan Maseritz, Harriet Stine, Ruth Hubbard, Joan Kaplan.

The inter-dorm council is made up of representatives from Lindley, Boyd, Howard Halls, and Sprague Cottage.

The council functions as a medium through which mutual plans of the dormitories can be formulated and discussed.

This year the Women's League, in trying to bolster campus averages, set aside a sum of money to be used for a plaque. This plaque is to be presented by the Inter-dorm Council to the dormitory having the highest point average.

BOYD HALL

FIRST ROW: M. Hagan, P. Albaugh, M. L. Burkett, J. NeCampen, G. Martin.
SECOND ROW: G. Augusthne, B. McClelland, E. Kalish, G. Kava-lier, Mrs. Bixler.

THIRD ROW: L. Weaver, M. Babucz, P. Elfrind, R. Mann, S. Bloss, M. Murphy, B. Francis.

Highlighting the social season at Boyd Hall was the annual winter formal. The theme chosen for the event, Victorian Ball, was carried out in the "gay nineties" motif, and the coeds and their dates enjoyed the tunes of Willie McKay's orchestra.

Boyd Hall opened its doors and offered its hospitality again at the "Moonshine" record dance, one of the numerous open houses to which men flocked. The winner of their limerick contest was given a date with the Boyd Queen of his choice.

Originality was displayed in the Variety Show sponsored in the dorm, and a number of hayrides and weiner roasts dotted the social calendar. The excursion to "Old Man's Cave" proved to be a worth-while experience, and winter brought the annual Christmas dinner, attended by President Baker.

HOWARD HALL

FIRST ROW: E. Kozler, J. Cook, K. Cline, B. L. Bascom, B. Gioia, B. Lamb, B. Brockett.
 SECOND ROW: E. Starn, M. Collins, J. McQuain, H. Stine, M. Shick, J. Maseritz, F. Mraz, C. Wagner, M. Pickenpaugh, E. Pickenpaugh.

THIRD ROW: E. Murphy, P. O'Dell, D. Bolles, H. Braun, T. McConahay, J. Bryant, B. Sheemaker, H. Colesworthy, L. Chwing, R. Bruss, E. Wizenberger, M. Huck, N. Quackenbush, J. Adam, E. L. Boeckler, C. De Luca.

Howard Hall is the center of life in its vibrant part of Dean life at Howard

Howard Hall, in the heart of the campus, found its way into the hearts of many through its policy of cordiality and cooperation. It sponsored many open houses including one on a pigskin theme, and a Winter Wonderland Formal among its many social functions.

There were teas and coffee hours, court dances, and a formal Christmas dinner for President Baker besides the annual house council breakfast and Christmas party, which all went to show the newcomers and freshmen that life at Howard is what its cracked up to be.

Spring saw the Rec. Hall serving as host to a combined party of Howardites and residents of Lower Campus. Howard coeds are represented in almost every phase of campus life, with other honoraries, as well as social clubs and the Y. M. C. A.

LINDLEY HALL

FIRST ROW: J. McCarty, P. Morgan, C. McClelland, M. Martenchik, H. Cowen, J. Gecsy, V. Johnson.
SECOND ROW: P. Moon, J. Ewing, F. Lange, J. Cable, B. Tucker.
THIRD ROW: C. Pettingill, C. Chambers, N. Troupe, Pres., M. Stone, R. Nelson, L. Hocking.

Lindley Hall, the largest women's dorm on campus, participated in and sponsored numerous projects during the year. They collected money for needy children in Kentucky and made a very substantial contribution to the March of Dimes campaign.

Their winter formal was a great success and one of the best on campus for the year.

Lindley Hallites did a splendid job for the vets at Chillicothe by their large contribution to their hospital.

One of the outstanding events of the year which was neither social nor academic was the lights—pardon, no lights—for three days and nights. It was fun for awhile, living by candle light and running to the lounge for callers instead of to the phone, but the residents were happy to see the power return, for they found it hard to study by candlelight.

Lindley's Winter Formal featured Bill McCutcheon and Orchestra.

BECKLEY COTTAGE

Along with a brand new house mother, Miss Ester Jane Hand, Beckley Cottage this year received new carpets and new drapes, which made their lounge homelike. The twenty occupants had a full social schedule to supplement their regular studies. These activities included an open house, a fall weiner roast at Dean Voigt's, a gay Christmas party, a spring outdoor party and a hay ride just for the girls in the Cottage.

Like other women's accommodations, Beckley was very crowded this year, but that was not as bothersome as the furnace. It seemed that either the furnace did not work, and the girls froze, or that it filled the house with smoke. But they are looking forward hopefully to next year, when the Cottage has been promised steam heat.

Beckley made good use of their porch roofs during the year. In the fall and the spring the back porch roof was used for sun bathing, and the front porch was an ideal vantage point to listen to serenades at the surrounding houses.

FIRST ROW: H. Beardmore, J. Epstein, M. Henning, C. Costello, M. Juvinall.

SECOND ROW: M. Wahlberg, D. Warren, J. Hales, N. Shupe, Pres., N. Westbrook, R. DiFranco, S. Inbender.

THIRD ROW: J. Gibbon, B. Plomske, A. Barnett, P. Klein, Miss Hand, J. Walden, P. Russell, J. Chapman, H. Kolichon.

LASH COTTAGE

FIRST ROW: D. Axene, Francks, R. Bishop, J. Gruber, R. Rosenfeld, J. Zasio, E. Hickman, N. Barrett.

SECOND ROW: H. Huston, S. Miller, D. Gallbreath, B. Zelesnik, J. Bersten, L. Charvat, A. Wilbur, A. Carlin, J. Locker.

Lash Cottage, with its seventeen women, opened the school year with a Freshman Day that the frosh will long remember — but after the initiation, everything was forgiven at a party. A weiner roast late in October was enjoyed by everyone.

Lash was elaborately decorated for Christmastime, and after the tree was trimmed, the girls had a party. They showed their hospitality by entertaining the Phi Kappa's after they had serenaded Lash. Under the direction of Ann Wilbur, the president, and Housemother Mrs. Gill, a Valentine Party was held on Feb. 14.

The women of Lash are justly proud of their high scholastic averages—for the first semester 1947-48 the house average was 2.76.

McVEY COTTAGE

FRONT ROW: Sara Dye, Dorothy Hunter, Harriet Zadan, Dorothy Santivacco, Mary Suttle.
 SECOND ROW: Ruth Vogt, Adelle Levin, Jean Suttle, Henrietta Mehlman, Judith Zeeler.
 THIRD ROW: Pauline Kruse, Jeanne Collis, Sara Grau, Audrey Browett, Virginia Parker, President.

'48" was a busy year for McVey Cottage, as they organized their own campaign to send boxes to Europe, and had parties for the fortunate within the house with birthdays. Snowball fights with the three freshmen members of the house left few idle moments.

The girls descended on the campus radio station, WOUN, one night and gave a good account of themselves on the local quiz show. The girls "right next to the grill" have an excellent record collection that is not to be rivalled, and the strains of popular tunes may be heard coming from the house each evening.

MATTHEWS COTTAGE

The nineteen girls and the house-mother, Virginia Hendrick, at Matthews Cottage spent a year filled with studies, excitement and fun. The small house on Mulberry started its social season off with an open house right after registration. Next on the list was a hay ride, but the uncompromising weather decided to rain, and a party was held in the house instead. Just before Christmas, the house seniors gave a surprise party for the entire house at the WRA Cabin.

Second Semester saw a Valentine party on Friday, Feb. 13, but no mishaps were reported. Later in the spring the cottage held another hay ride to make up for the one that was missed. The girls had a great deal of trouble during the year with blown fuses — someone was always plugging in too many electric fixtures. Then sometimes the water wasn't always hot on Saturday night, but lots of fun was had by the entire house.

FIRST ROW: Virginia Hendrick, Joan Broeske, Pat Rose, Joan Moorhead, Joan Skurko, Pat Hess, Wilma Evilsizor, Carla Clark.

SECOND ROW: Doris Dishon, Mary Roadpouch, Alice Broughton, Audrey Haas, Dot Schneider, Joy Gears, Dorothy Niedhammer, Jean Bendsley.

THIRD ROW: Irma Jaakkola, Jean Edwards, Jean Macarthur, Virginia Hodge.

O'BLENESS COTTAGE

The women of O'Bleness Cottage were first this year—first housing unit to go Christmas caroling, that is. Their singing was enjoyed by everyone who heard them, and the girls plan to be first next year.

At homecoming, O'Bleness erected a huge blinking stoplight over the front porch which drew the attention of all who passed by the house on Union Street. Also for the first time this year, O'Bleness Cottage elected officers within the house, and Betty Smith was chosen president. Miss Jefferson, the housemother, and the eighteen girls of O'Bleness determined to increase the house's activities during the year.

FIRST ROW: Violet Day, Dianne Blower, Jane Simpson, Betty Smith, Elizabethann Schultz, Joan Relyea, Jo Ann Smith, Ann Kersey.
 SECOND ROW: Miss Dorothy Jefferson, Marjorie Gibson, Elizabeth Dunn, Gloria Perce, Lecta Matheny, Helen Cox, Jean Hendricks.
 THIRD ROW: Martha Elms, Helen Kause, Helen Higley.

PRESTON COTTAGE

FIRST ROW: Jeanne Betz, Nancy Sutton, Lois Ingram, Agnes Centivany, B. Lou Brown.
 SECOND ROW: Ellen Shawyer, Grace Walzer, Betty Hesnik, June Chandler.
 THIRD ROW: Jo Anne Utley, Jane Campbell, Carolyn Rosenberg, Marjorie Paul.

Preston Cottage really proved to be a home away from home for the thirteen girls living there. It was decorated at both Halloween and Christmas.

The women at Preston, located next to Howard Hall, managed to squeeze into their extra-curricular life a party at the WRA cabin, three birthday parties and an engagement shower. Still along the lighter side, Preston Cottage presented a challenge to any and all passers-by on College Street to a snow ball light one late winter afternoon.

Preston's living room is unique in that it boasts a coat-of-arms consisting of a bear trap held up by two rampant beavers.

SLOAN COTTAGE

FIRST ROW: J. Cross, C. Schaefer, D. Levitt, J. Cannon, M. Sheldon, R. Sharkey, P. Alls.
 SECOND ROW: E. Whitmore, F. Hoobler, D. Jack, V. Houchin, L. Schroll, P. McNulty, M. Carmody, R. Tomsuden, B. Francis, J. Pinkie, G. Eynon, C. Zeman, B. Wolcott.

The cottage next to Carl's was filled with 23 women this year - as the two upperclassmen found 21 freshmen on their hands. The year's highlight of Sloan's activities was the gala Christmas Party, which had all the trimmings, including a huge Christmas tree.

The "Women of Sloan" were justly proud of their cottage after the complete redecoration of the house in the fall. They were so proud, in fact, they almost forgot to dodge the trickles of water which came with every rain - through the leaks in the roof.

Officers at Sloan this year included; Jean Fornwalt, Pres.; Ruth Tomsuden, Treasurer; and Julie Pinkie, Social Chairman.

ORGANIZED HOUSING UNITS

OHU is comprised of the house presidents of the university owned women's cottages. Meetings are held semi-monthly in McGuffey Hall to discuss problems arising in the various cottages.

On December 14 OHU sponsored a tea at Lindley Hall in honor of the house mothers.

Along the social side, OHU sponsored a formal which was held at Rufus Putnam Auditorium on March 13. The music was furnished by Willy McKay and orchestra. Not to be outdone in the line of beauty, OHU put up Pat Hess for Athena Queen.

FIRST ROW: D. Malak, J. Cartwright, N. Bennett, D. Horgan, M. Roadpouch.
 SECOND ROW: D. Johnson, P. Jewett, D. Bachman, N. Lane, T. Ray, N. Shupe, G. Fornwalt.
 THIRD ROW: E. Ebersback, A. Wilbur, J. Betz, E. Smith, V. Parker, M. Martin, M. Ohlinger.

WOMEN'S INDEPENDENT ASSOCIATION

FIRST ROW: Becky Leadnck, Jan McGee, Barbara McClelland, Norma Shupe, Elizabeth Luce, Margaret Tober.
 SECOND ROW: Betty Brown, Pat Morgan, Lucille Pion, Mary McKinley, Jean Kyle, Jean Isseman
 THIRD ROW: Ruth Luebeck, Doris Standring, Pat Kester, Mary Roadpouch, Beverly Finklestein.

The Women's Independent Association, open to all non-greek women on campus, provides an extensive social and education program for its members. This year the WIA held a rummage sale, and the proceeds were used for their varied social program.

The WIA and MIA have jointly sponsored Saturday afternoon dancing lessons for the past two years. This year the lessons were held in the new Rec Hall, and were open to the whole campus. The lessons were popular and successful.

Another WIA-MIA sponsored event is the annual Independent's Dance which was held in Rufus Putnam this year, and was a huge success.

The WIA this year was under the leadership of president Becky Leadnck. At the end of the year, all funds remaining in the organization were contributed by Miss Barbara McClelland, advisor of the WIA, to the Salvation Army.

MEN'S DORMITORY

FIRST ROW: S. Humphrey, J. Terleschi, M. Herman, R. Egan, Pres., B. Woodling, H. Hand.

SECOND ROW: H. Hunt, T. Lenahan, G. Zeiters, F. Snyder, T. Semancik, G. Fiorentine.

The Men's Dorm collection drive for the Veteran's Administration Hospital at Chillicothe resulted in a greater sum than any other organization on campus this year. A box was placed at the entrance of the dorm in which contributions could be placed. Men's Dorm was the only dormitory to use this idea.

The Men's Dorm Winter Dance and Spring Formal were the highlights of the dorm social season. The famous Men's Dorm Bar was used on both these occasions. Under the direction of Bob Egan, Dorm president, the men at the dorm built a portable bandstand for use at their dances, and rented it to various groups for other occasions.

The dorm was very active in sports during the year, having football, basketball, and softball teams.

SCABBARD AND BLADE

SECOND ROW: Cadets: J. Nolan, Col.; E. Albaugh, Capt.; M. Wilt, Capt.; D. Pickard, Capt.; W. Smith, 1st Lt.; T. Salak, Capt.; E. Gutt, 1st Lt.; H. Carpenter, Maj.; R. Schultz, 1st Lt.

Advisors to Scabbard and Blade are: W. J. Favene, Col. Speidel, Cadet Col. Nolan, Dean Hancock, Lean Armbruster and Bud Smith.

The National Honor Society of Scabbard and Blade, founded at the University of Wisconsin in 1905, was organized for cadet officers who have displayed outstanding military proficiency and who have displayed academic achievement.

Company A-8, organized at Ohio University in 1939, was active in campus affairs prior to the war and sponsored the Military Ball each year.

Fifteen Advanced Course cadets were selected by alumni members from Athens, the faculty, and undergraduates, to reactivate the company in the fall semester of 1947. This reactivation was announced by a Special Order read at the Fall Review.

PERSHING RIFLES

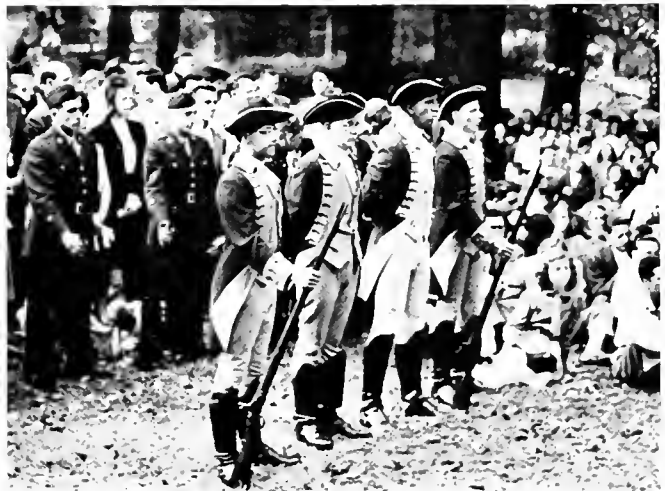

FIRST ROW: N. Gibbins, M. Ruhl, J. Lynch, P. Dayton, J. Nolan, E. Grindereng, G. Neal.
SECOND ROW: D. Griffith, W. Porter, N. Winkel, D. Lewis, W. Matthews, C. Josten, E. Schnieder, T. Jenkinson, D. Daru.

THIRD ROW: B. Clark, G. Layne, D. Louis, L. Papalios, W. Gorden, J. Kenedy, R. Stirling, R. Shaw, D. Stout, E. Davis.
FOURTH ROW: J. Lowe, A. Engalhard, W. Buffington, G. Shepard, M. Nicholson, F. Marburger, D. Lehi, R. Hurd, G. Dand, J. Nuse.

The National Society of Pershing Rifles was founded in 1894 by General John J. Pershing at the University of Nebraska. Its aim is to encourage, preserve, and develop the highest ideals of the military profession and good citizenship.

Company F-1 was organized in 1937 and after a wartime lapse was reorganized in 1946 by a group of interested alumni returning from the services.

The company's activities included: Presentation Ceremony at the Military Ball, Color Guard for the University Band, Honor Guard at the Cutler Rededication, varied social functions, and participation in the annual Regimental Drill Meet.

Members of Pershing Rifles played an important part in the Cutler Rededication Ceremonies.

 THIRD ROW: D. Broughton, L. James, P. Rush, A. Vaughters, M. Fleming, J. Cannon, J. Monroe, J. Nunn.

Members of Los Amigos at Christmas Party given on the campus.

Los Amigos was founded on the campus of Ohio University by Lawrence A. Gibbs, in February of 1947. It is composed of forty students. The purpose of this organization is to bring social activity to the Negro students on the campus. The club is under campus supervision, Dr. Edward A. Taylor, sponsor.

Thus far, Los Amigos has been successful in giving a Halloween party, a wiener roast, and a Christmas party, with the assistance of the sociology club.

Our meetings are held twice a month, either on campus, or at the home of one of the students.

Los Amigos hopes to eventually extend itself, and take an active part of all campus activities.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE PLAYERS

M. Tillson, Don Fahrestack, Easter Yahya, Terese Nelson, Jack Sigman, Margaret Ferguson.

National Collegiate Players is an honorary fraternity composed of senior students who have been outstandingly active in dramatic productions, both in the technical back-stage work and in performances. To obtain membership in this group, also known as Phi Epsilon Phi, a student must complete specified courses in the Dramatic Department and complete a minimum number of hours.

This group is responsible for the theatre open-houses given each semester to acquaint new and old students with the theatre's work on the O.U. campus. Among its varied activities, N.C.P. also sponsors the annual theatre banquet for the faculty and students who have been active in the theatre in the past year.

Dean Earl C. Seigfred, Dean of the College of Fine Arts is second-vice president in the national organization of Pi Epsilon Phi.

DELTA PHI DELTA

The ambition of every student of Painting and Allied Arts is to wear the gold palette of Delta Phi Delta, National Art Honorary. For membership in Delta Phi Delta means he has attained recognition as one of OU's outstanding artists.

Among Delta Phi Delta activities was an exhibit of creative art in the Library Art Gallery. To encourage artistic efforts among underclassmen, Delta Phi Delta made its annual award to the most outstanding freshman art student. This year Delta Phi Delta members sent an exhibit to the National Convention in Cincinnati.

On the social side, Delta Phi Delta has sponsored teas, coffee hours, and banquets for its members and for the faculty of the art department.

FIRST ROW: L. Davis, M. McKibben, J. Wentz, R. Sauer, J. Fredericks, R. Hubbard, J. Staples, D. McConkey.

SECOND ROW: A. Kozak, W. Gundering, R. McGinnes, S. Nass, F. Furbee, R. Zawada, R. Hubbel, F. Baker, A. Schultz.

THIRD ROW: W. Phelps, H. Wehlmen, G. Glazier, N. Shupe, W. Carpenter, C. Korabeck, E. Baeckler, T. Ellison, D. Thayer.

SIGMA EPSILON ALPHA

Sigma Epsilon Alpha is an organization for students of Greek descent at Ohio University. It is a social fraternity that sponsors parties, wiener roasts and dances. Sigma Epsilon Alpha strives to keep Greek students together on a campus where there is no Greek church or other similar functions, such as a student might find at home.

Elections are held at the beginning of the spring semester and membership is open at the beginning of each semester. George Bymakos served as president during the 1947-48 school year.

FIRST ROW: Prof. Hill, George Bymakor, Pres., Thea Patestudes.
SECOND ROW: Jim Canaris, Gust Harris, Stanley Kataras, George Cassudakis, Louis Papalios, Arthur Keriotis, Steve Tsaqoris.

WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM

FIRST ROW: Azele Levin, Jean Suttle, Peggy Mahaffey, Nancy O'Dell, Joan Hudson.
SECOND ROW: Sara Grau, Lois Little, Sarah Lou Dye, Pres., Peggy Klein, Nancy Canfield, Becky Faine, Ellen Wambberger.
THIRD ROW: Ruth Krantz, Sgt. Ledford, Nancy Hanna, Sgt. Sampelle, Ellen Clark.

The Ohio University Women's Rifle Team is composed of three teams; first, second, and third. Each team consists of fifteen girls. The first team girls are expert riflemen and in order to maintain their standing they must make a score of 395 out of a possible 400. To qualify for the second team of sharpshooters, a girl must have a score of 375 out of a possible 400.

During the school year the team participates in matches with girls' teams from opposing schools. The training received as members of the team qualifies the girls to act as coaches in over 700 summer camps sponsored by the National Rifle Association and located in all parts of the United States.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

FIRST ROW: B. Pugh, D. Bachman, F. Barshay, A. Davis, P. Auping, M. Reese, J. Brown, L. J. Hines, F. Casteel. SECOND ROW: N. Troup, M. Thompson, J. Sanborn, B. Lamb, M. Huck, J. Bierbower, M. Becker, C. Richards, R. Raney, E. Bates. THIRD ROW: G. Stewart, C. Zeman, G. Esterhay, M. Pletcher, J. Sawyer, S. Vogel, M. Trumble, M. Scatterday, L. Weaver.

The Home Economics Club is an organization for women who are interested in the problems of modern home economics. This year, under president Margaret Huck, the aim of the club was to arouse interest in home economics as a career. Invitations to an open house given by the Home Ec Club were sent to all high school senior girls in this area.

Starting the round of social meetings early in the fall was a wiener roast held in Dean Voight's garden. A scavenger hunt was the main attraction at the Halloween Party. The big event of the year was the traditional Smorgasbord, where the Home Ec girls really got a chance to prove that they could cook. The Seniors were given a big send-off in the spring at a brunch held in their honor; and at this time they were initiated into the American Home Economics Association.

In the spring, the Home Ec Club sent delegates to the College Club Province meeting held at the University of Kentucky.

KAPPA KAPPA PSI

Re-activated this year after a lapse of five years, Kappa Kappa Psi, honorary fraternity for college bandmen, operates in the field of the college band.

The organization has a two fold purpose: first, to promote the existence and welfare of the college band and to cultivate a wholesome respect for its activities and achievements; and secondly, to honor outstanding bandmen through privilege of membership extended as a reward for the technical achievements and appreciation for the best in music.

The fraternity's sponsor is Mr. D. L. Martino, Director of the Ohio University Bands. The president this year was Ross Davis.

Gloria Stewart, Peggy Faulkner, Joan Cross, Virginia Fisher, Dsan Voigt, Ardath Hansen.

Under the able direction of its president, Joan Cross, Ohio University Chapter of the American Red Cross completed another year of service to the university and the surrounding locality. Outstanding in its work were the monthly trips to the Veterans' Hospital at Chillicothe, where O.U. girls acted as hostesses for dances at the hospital. Also, once a month the Red Cross sent entertainment groups to the hospital made up of campus talent.

The annual drive for funds for the Red Cross was successful in meeting the given quota, as was the project to furnish curtains for the library at the Vet's hospital. The curtains were made in cooperation with the University Home Economics Department.

Just before Christmas, the Red Cross sponsored a drive in which students could contribute gifts for the veterans at the Chillicothe Hospital to send home to their relatives. This project went over its goal, and over 500 gifts were sent to Chillicothe.

A final note-worthy project on campus was a collection of notebooks and pencils for European students during the spring.

O. U. ENGINEERS

FIRST ROW: J. Clever, S. Tit, N. Hockman, L. Olson, J. Barker, G. Cheney, J. James.
 SECOND ROW: C. Fink, E. Rogers, J. Collings, A. Gramelspacher, R. Mann, H. Fabe, E. Howell, J. Kerfe, J. Clever.
 THIRD ROW: J. Kirchner, R. Gould, K. Foster, P. Miller, L. Yount, G. Tucker, R. Cagg, B. Stomps, T. Semancik.

FOURTH ROW: M. Snider, J. Winchell, C. Graham, L. Thurber, W. Probert, J. Knellinger, R. Borges, B. Grundereng, E. Busboom.
 FIFTH ROW: State Patrolman E. Smith, W. Sneed, T. Andrian, T. Humnicky, G. Kelley, F. Furnell, G. Cain, Pres. G. Clark, R. Hinderson, State Patrolman.

With engineering becoming more and more prominent in the University's post war program, the O.U. Engineers' Club has progressed in a similar manner. The club now has a membership of more than one hundred and fifty students who are pursuing courses leading to a degree in engineering.

This year the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers recognized our organization and granted us a charter as a student chapter of the society.

Besides bringing prominent men to our campus for talks at our meetings, we sponsored "Safety Week", the G.E. "House of Magic" show, and dancing on the tennis courts. The well known Engineers' Ball was received with high acclaim by all who attended and we sincerely hope that it will continue to be one of the outstanding yearly events on our campus.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON

Phi Upsilon Omicron, national professional honorary for home economics women, initiated five new members at the fall initiation. Following initiation, actives were guests of advisor Dr. Justin and Miss Morse at a buffet supper held at the Women's Faculty Club.

Founder's Day, Feb. 10, was celebrated with a Valentine tea for all alumni living in Athens.

As its main professional project for the year, Theta chapter made draperies for the library at the Veteran's Hospital in Chillicothe, the material being furnished by the Red Cross.

FIRST ROW: Georgia Kail, Dorothy Raine, Laraine Weaver, Grace Esterhay, Florence Justin—Advisor.
SECOND ROW: Nancy Troup, Mary Trumble, Alice Davies, Marilyn Pletcher, Mary Martin, Jane Sanborn, Ellen Thomas, Melba Pickenpaugh, Linda Di Napoli, Margaret Huck, Dorothy Bachman.

CINCINNATI CLUB

FIRST ROW: J. Stuhlmuller, D. Sanders, B. Goode, F. Gilmore, P. Cox, D. Deltzer.
SECOND ROW: E. Pyle, D. Ryberg, S. Gilmore, C. Koett, J. Issenman, N. Haneley, C. Doel, P. Schmidt.
THIRD ROW: R. Benhase, S. Pyle, D. Gilmore, R. Frybarger, E. Betscher, B. Gest, M. Agger, D. Goode, G. Beal, J. Ross, C. Fennell, R. Sullivan.

The Cincinnati Club was organized in the spring of 1947. The club was formed to keep students from the greater Cincinnati area in contact with each other for social and public service functions.

The activities of the Cincinnati Club include social meetings and outside entertainment functions.

The officers are Dwight Goode, president; Ivan Klebanow, Vice President; Earl Betscher, Treasurer; and Maxine Agger, Secretary.

SPRAGUE HALL

FIRST ROW: A. Pollina, B. Finkelstein, S. Linhart, V. Janapolis, Pres., M. Nees, N. Brennan, J. Pohlman.
 SECOND ROW: M. Tuggle, J. Carrol, M. Fletcher, M. Famulener, K. Johnson, E. Barton, J. Dickey, R. Luebeck, Mrs. Striplin, V. Wilson.
 THIRD ROW: E. Fridenstine, S. Daschbach, S. Julyan, M. Williams, B. J. Carroll, R. A. Thatcher, J. Abernethy, M. Weitzman, L. Kleber, F. Wolfson, R. Sahlstrom, R. Dickerson, S. Murray, P. Manchick, R. Pennock, V. Sursa, L. Pion, J. Hudson, S. Boiegrain.

Sprague residents would proudly tell you that their "home-away-from-home" was a full-fledged dormitory. When referring to the sadly degenerated old house overlooking the Hocking and the railroad, they spoke of it jocularly as the original "tumble down shack by the railroad tracks".

Thirty-nine girls resided in Sprague Hall under the supervision of Mrs. Estella A. Striplin, housemother. Of these 39, 18 were freshmen having their first taste of college and dorm life.

The varied social calendar included an Open House, a Christmas Party at which the girls decorated their own tree with ornaments they contributed, a League of Nations Party, a trip to Old Man's Cave and a Mother's Weekend. The girls also found time for studying, bridge games, the usual gab-fests and a snowball fight with the Deltas, their next-door neighbors.

ALPHA OMEGA UPSILON

Recognizing outstanding students in the field, Alpha Omega Upsilon is the agriculture honorary on campus.

This fraternity endeavors to better farming practices in Athens county by advocating a more extensive soil conservation program and better use of modern farming knowledge.

The initiation for new members consists of having the pledges dress in farmers clothes and parade the campus. Many laughs were heard over the old straw hats, blue jeans and faded work shirts as the members walked around the green.

Among their other functions, Alpha Omega Upsilon entered a float in the homecoming parade this year.

FIRST ROW: W. Grammer, B. Swan, R. Bundus, D. Rypma, B. Szabo, B. Curran, R. Hannum, L. Raptis, P. Warye.
 SECOND ROW: A. Engalhard, R. Robinson, A. McPherson, R. Snider, B. Brogel, H. Custer, M. Marchal.

BOTANY CLUB

Botany Club is an organization for O.U. students who are interested in the science of plants and further exploitation in this field.

Included in this year's program were lectures, slides, movies and parties. Starting their 1947-48 year was a party at City Park in October. A Christmas party was enjoyed by the club. An invitation was extended to all members to join the Ohio Forestry Association.

Aside from the social activities of the club, there were speeches from outside the campus given by leaders in the botanical field. These included Dr. Waller from Ohio State and Dr. Diller, State Forester from the Wooster Agricultural Experimental Station.

FIRST ROW: R. Nicholas, D. O'Connor, K. Eberhard, G. Baker.
SECOND ROW: B. Okey, B. Szabo, J. Gears, A. McPherson.
THIRD ROW: D. Schneider, S. L. Dye, Marlene Archer, P. Mahaffey.
FOURTH ROW: D. Blickle, N. O'Dell, Mr. Boetticker, P. Picering, Dr. Wallace, R. W. Danielson, M. Maddock, J. Genheimer, M. Sexton, S. Brockett, M. Vermillion.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY

FIRST ROW: A. Sandy, J. Barker, B. Francis, B. Smith, E. Pickenpaugh, L. Ruppe. SECOND ROW: E. Wilsey, E. Albaugh, J. Dickson, G. Mezey, L. Yount, H. Watson, R. Murie. THIRD ROW: D. Prazczn, J. Campbell, C. Ramsey, F. J. Pavlik, E. Hickman, C. Calvin, P. Kovalm, J. Malone, M. Heber. FOURTH ROW: B. McClelland, P. Mahaffy, G. Lance, E. Miller, H. Manesenvik, L. Tulley, D. Clippinger, M. Hendrick. FIFTH ROW: E. Teaford, B. Pukay, A. Lehman, D. Johnson.

The Chemical Society of Ohio University had a record membership during the past year. The membership of this unique organization is comprised of students interested in any of the various phases of chemistry, and enrolled in at least one chemistry course.

The Society, under the leadership of president Betty Smith, held regular meetings in the new Chemistry Building; and in its meetings sponsored a tour through the new Chemistry Building, guest speakers, talks by faculty members, and motion pictures showing the many aspects of chemistry in industry.

CANTERBURY CLUB

The impressive Episcopal Choir has many student members.

The Canterbury Club is the organization of the Protestant Episcopal students on the campus of American Colleges and Universities. On some college campuses, the Club is a closed organization, made up of Episcopal students who associate themselves with it. On the Campus of Ohio University it is an open organization to which every Episcopal student belongs by virtue of his or her affiliation with the Church.

The aim of the Canterbury Club on the campus of Ohio University is to integrate into the life of the Church all Episcopalians in the University Community. In so far as possible, this is done through the mediums of worship, discussion groups, and activity groups which are made up of students who express an interest in activities.

Informal gatherings at the church often gather around the piano.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

FIRST ROW: E. Christie, J. Maxwell, R. Cleland, J. Shank, S. Claunch, J. Claunch, L. Fowler, L. Ruppe, H. Barnhill
 SECOND ROW: J. Malcolm, J. VanDyke, R. Petersen, C. Ramsey, T. Fox, E. Keller, R. Russell, E. Brehm, L. Brehm, M. Stivartak, A. Wiley
 THIRD ROW: W. Kehler, R. Barrett, J. Cannon, P. Sauder, B. Mackiewicz, R. Clough, J. Sheets, S. Nadelman, R. Blinn, H. Nienstedt, W. Cotton, J. Cotton, J. Knockenhauser, D. Lewis

 FIFTH ROW: B. McCoy, J. Darr, P. Long, L. Younger, E. Hickman, A. Davis, M. Mitchell, A. Gould, U. Adler, N. Barrett, B. Griswell, M. Hogan, P. Pickering, Mrs. Schmatz, B. Werner
 SIXTH ROW: H. Strauss, J. Werner, G. Otto, M. Ruhl, C. Stack, B. Pukay, N. Summer, E. Wilsey, R. Manica, R. Trehn, K. Wilcox, G. Lance, R. Schulz, W. Butterworth.

The aim of Der Deutsche Verein Club is to preserve the culture of the vigorous, hardy, happy Germany of Wagner and Humperdink. This organization gives all students taking German additional cultural, linguistic and social advantages. This is accomplished in bi-monthly meetings featuring group singing, musical recordings, solos by students, a choral group, recitation games, and puppet plays.

The Club has an unusual ruling concerning their meetings—it is that only German may be spoken during the meeting. The meetings include readings of poems and stories in German, for these foster correct speaking of the language. Featured on this year's social program were the annual Christmas party and the spring picnic.

ETA SIGMA PHI

FIRST ROW: W. Cameron, Drake, Charles Kalman, Richard Wilcox, Nick Alexander, Marian Martin
 SECOND ROW: W. Cameron, Kazis, Boss Evans, Prof. Hill, Prof. Murphy, James Hontas, Joe Sparks.

Eta Sigma Phi, a National Honorary Classical Language Society, endeavors to further the spirit of cooperation and goodwill among the members of classical departments, to stimulate interest in and to increase our knowledge through study of the history, art and literature of ancient Greece and Rome. Members are chosen for their scholarship, interest and attainment.

Two pledge classes were received into active membership and several interesting programs were held during the year. The newly elected officers were installed at the Annual May Banquet.

L'ALLIANCE FRANCAISE

FIRST ROW: Miss Allen, Miss Noss, Philippe Bazin, Sue Rowland, Miss Satak
SECOND ROW: Barbara Westerheld, Shirley Baxter, Marjorie Mathey.

The Alliance Francaise took on new life this year with the arrival of three French students who became leaders in its activities. Veterans who were in France and several wives from French speaking countries have also added interest to the meetings. A large group of faculty members, guests and student members gathered for a gala dinner purporting to be aboard a liner on its way to France.

The programs of the year dealt with Louis XIV and his reign. Scenes from Corneille and Moliere were enacted. Slides of the Versailles palace, of 17th century art, four French films, and an exhibit of reproductions of French paintings were shown. In April, a recital of French folk songs was given by Mme. Rex and M. Blanchard, making their first tour of the United States.

LE CERCLE FRANCAISE

The purpose of Le Cercle Francais is to instill in its members the love of the French language, an understanding of the culture, literature, art, music, and thought of the French nation. With this purpose in mind, the organization discussed this year Paris down through the centuries up to today, dealing with such aspects of the old city as industry and architecture.

Along with the Alliance Francaise, Le Cercle brought to the campus screen many popular French films. Le Cercle, as the custom has been in the past, also adopted a French student to whom packages of clothing and other needed supplies were sent.

Le Cercle was fortunate this year in having two French exchange students on campus, Philippe Bazin and Michael Marchal. Both of these students participated in many of the organization's programs.

FIRST ROW: C. Herbert, M. Murphy, S. Rose, A. Hansen, E. Gordon, L. Anderson, M. Mathey, C. Grammer, H. Milligan, M. Simons, Miss Noss, P. Armstrong.
SECOND ROW: B. Henry, W. Burnheimer, M. Marchal, B. Driscoll, R. Colvin, K. Adams, J. Sawyer, M. Sifers, J. Kraus, J. Paterna.
THIRD ROW: J. Castiglia, F. Moore.

1948 ATHENA STAFF

The Athena staff members found a practically new office upon their return in the fall—a brand new, fully equipped darkroom was the most outstanding change. Throughout the year, the office was a buzz of constant activity in all sections—two phonographs playing, strobe lights flashing, strange people using the telephone, mad dashes to the post office for a Saturday noon deadline, and people asking, "What's on at the movie tonight?" or "Where do I get a Post?"

These only added to the confusion. At times there was difficulty in telling photo and editorial staffs apart, but there was one sure way—the photo staff stayed the latest at night.

The usual rush-rush was much in evidence after Christmas as the staff put forth all possible effort to get the book out on time. Pics had to be re-taken, layouts constantly changed, midnight photo printing and not making deadlines filled the year. All efforts were directed toward putting out a bigger, better Athena. The 276 pages of this volume is the largest number of pages in any Athena printed this size. The cost of engravings is almost a third over previous years. The 2425 sales total tops all other years by nearly six hundred books.

The staff hopes that you, the reader, will enjoy reading their "baby"—the '48 Athena. They will long remember this year and the typical phrase, "Well, I guess I'll get something to eat."

The Editorial Board tried to keep some kind of order. Seated are Associate Editor Peggy Close, Editor Fred English, Associate Editor Jeanie Wentz. Standing: Copy Assistant Merle L. Kward, Copy Editor Patti Kohl, Sports Editor Karl Heidtman, Layout Editor Gus Bowman.

Office, typing and mounting staffs included: Helen Gioia, Helen Steich, Nan Westbrook, Dorothy Wood, Marie Sersen, Gail Grabel, Irene Kryzs, Judy Walden, Doris Warren, Barbara Walker, Dorothy Adams and Elaine Watson.

Photography Editor Chuck Stewart somehow found time for the News Bureau on top of Athena work.

Huge Photo Staff included: FIRST ROW: Linda Kyle, Stan Begam, Wm. Jeff, R. J. West. SECOND ROW: Marilyn Mattson, Mena L. OHIO UNIVERSITY POST

The Ohio University Post, official student newspaper, appeared twice weekly in 1947-48 under much the same executive staff that had guided it since the middle of January, 1947. Early in September Donald Evans moved into the new position of managing editor and J. Robert Savely joined the executive staff as copy editor. The group was headed by Editor Martin Blau and Business Manager Ralph Lambdin and included Sports Editor Harry Turton, News Editor Alan Himelick, Advertising Manager Joan Hauschulz and Circulation Manager Melvin Smith.

Under these students the Post injected itself into almost every campus issue. It fought for a new student center building, a cleaner campus, better student government.

The Post itself was able to get CAC to liberalize its management policy and found itself with more freedom than it had known in many years. The Post offered such innovations as having details of out-of-town football games relayed immediately to the campus.

Among the popular features of the Post were such columns as Marty Blau's "Off to One Side," Bob Sayre's "In Case You Haven't Heard," Elinor Bliss' "On the Social Merrygoround" and Harry Turton's "Off the Sports Griddle."

THETA SIGMA PHI

With membership based on high scholastic achievement, Theta Sigma Phi serves to stimulate scholarship among journalistic aspirants and to foster a keen professional interest. This national professional honorary for women in journalism gives to its members a program which combines the social and scholastic.

Talks given by persons experienced in the newspaper field were enjoyed by the members of this group at their meetings.

WRITER'S WORKSHOP

Late last fall the members of Quill club, an organization which encourages and fosters creative writing, decided to become an independent organization. Ties were severed with the National Quill Club, and Writer's Workshop was chosen as the new name.

Meetings were held at Mr. Charles Allen Smart's home and his office in Wilson Hall. Members read manuscripts, held criticisms, literary discussions, and held cider and do-nut parties.

In October 1948, the members, under the guidance of Mr. Smart and President Richard Ash, decided to publish their own literary magazine, to which was given the title ELM LEAVES. George Constable, who had magazine writing experience, along with Ester Gohbrect, Paul Kuestner, and Betty Jo Waltz edited and set up the magazine format. The first issue was planned for April. Most active members of the Workshop have contributed fiction, poetry and general interest articles to the tentative Spring issue.

THIRD ROW: Samuel Hoffman, Bob Schweitz, Joe Weinstein, Bill Hochstuhl, Harry A. Turton, Donald Evans, Bob Horan.

The OU chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, is composed of junior and senior men who give evidence of pursuing a successful career in journalism. This year's group, faculty advised by A. T. Turnbull and officered by Martin Blau, president; Robert Sayre, vice president; Harold Schellkopf, secretary; and Clyde Wimer, treasurer, sponsored the annual Newspaper Ball as it had in the past. SDX also published a bi-monthly newspaper, "Pica," which contained news of the journalism world. Pica was distributed free of charge to all students in the School of Journalism. Samuel Hoffman edited the paper.

The Newspaper Ball featuring Willie McKay was well attended.

ALPHA MU

FRONT ROW Charles H. Stewart, Wilmer S. Geff, William A. Drake, Merle E. Lockwood, Glenna Ann Kyle, Edward Birkner, Patricia Therne.

SECOND ROW: Lyle Udall, Elmer E. Davis, Jane Campbell, Ralph E. Meermans, Marilyn Mattson, Joseph Shelby Cox, Dale Holtzman, Ruth Vogt, Jack DeForest, Frederick English.

The Alpha Mu members are planning the new magazine and going national.

The youngest honorary at Ohio University, Alpha Mu is a local honorary fraternity in photographic journalism. Since its organization late in 1946, it has entered actively in the promotion of photo-journalism, especially at OU.

Alpha Mu has succeeded in improving local credit line policies and has been a center of photo-journalism development. Its outstanding activities have been in the advancement of a campus magazine at OU and the establishment of an annual salon for high school photographers.

When these photo-journalists want "to get away from it all", Alpha Mu sponsors a field trip so they can—take pictures.

CHILDHOOD EDUCATION CLUB

FIRST ROW: Virginia Fisher, Nancy Marts, Barbara Stuckey, Hilda Rhodes.
 SECOND ROW: Opaline Waddell, Marjorie Williams, Vicky Janapolis, Janice Huntley, Eileen Katz, Doris McDowell, Ann Colvig, Charlot Bradford, Phyl Davies.
 THIRD ROW: Laura Lownsbury, Mildred Peden, Lois Charvat, Lois Sayles, Peg Taylor.

The Childhood Education Club consists of women majoring in kindergarten-primary and elementary education. As future teachers of children, the members gain insight into the problems and practices of their profession through the activities of the club.

The meetings of the Childhood Education Club this year included sending Christmas boxes to the needy children of Poland, cooperating with the YWCA's Children's Home Committee in planning activities for the children, entertaining high school seniors of Athens county who are prospective teachers, meeting with the Athens County Association for Childhood Education and talks by Dean Collins and Dr. Yanch.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi, national educational honorary, is a fellowship of those dedicated to the cause of teaching as a profession and to the encouragement of high professional, intellectual and personal standards.

Founded in 1911, this organization has grown to include 100 chapters. This growth is partly due to the fine leadership of T. C. McCracken, Dean Emeritus of the College of Education, who has been the National Executive President for the past 25 years.

An annual tea for honor sophomores was held during the year and a Kappa Delta Pi award was given to the outstanding senior in the College of Education at the Honor Day Convo. Dean Collins of the College of Education became a member at one of the two initiation dinners.

FIRST ROW: C. Campbell, J. Kirkpatrick, G. Joachim, A. Di Biasio, D. L. Cook, P. Koval.
 SECOND ROW: Dean Collins, Dean Irma Voigt, A. Munn, R. Calendine, P. Kruse, W. Youngman, B. Laberde, B. Stiles, E. McQuain, E. Schott.
 THIRD ROW: C. Bell, H. Evans, G. Baker, R. Bruss, H. Phillips, M. Hoppes, M. Fletcher, D. Neidhammer, M. J. Witcraft, D. Burton.

FINE ARTS COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: Jean Hales, Bernadine Power, Ruth Sauer, Ruth Hubbard, Jean Roth.

SECOND ROW: Ross Davis, Bill Smith, Jacque Rhodes, Dean Seigfried, Louis Vaughn, Benny Fonti, Bill Drake, Ralph Meermans, Easter Yahya.

Bill McCutcheon stars as Columbus in the Fine Arts Council's "OU Kids".

Stimulating the interest of the campus in the fine arts, OU's Fine Arts Council gave the "OU Kids", a musical production entitled "Christopher Columbus" in the fall semester. The Fine Arts Council is comprised of the president and one additional member from each of the eight organizations in the Fine Arts College. The purpose of the Council is to support various campus activities connected with the Fine Arts.

Under the direction of Advisor Dean Seigfried, the Council sponsored the annual Ohio Valley Oil and Water Color Show, which was hung March 1st. The greatest achievement of the Council this year was bringing the National Touring Conference Company of players to the campus on April 22nd. At that time they presented the play, "The Late Christopher Bean".

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

SECOND ROW: Marilyn Zlotnik, Joan Maseritz, Juliette Beiner, Jean Abernathy, Pat Hess, Mrs. Max Smith, Lois Pickens, Thelma Ellison, Sylvia Linhart, Margaret Sayles, M. E. Overholt, Doris Boles.

The Ohio University Women's Glee Club, under the direction of Professor C. C. Robinson and Miss Evangeline Merritt, participated in many university programs throughout the year and also presented several concerts.

The combined Chorus of Men's Glee Club and Women's Glee Club presented a Cutler Rededication program which was held on October 18th. The Chorus also participated in the Homecoming program held in Memorial Auditorium and at the traditional Christmas Convocation. Their vocal interpretation of the Halleluia Chorus from the Messiah was one of the high spots of the program.

The Women's Glee Club held their own concert in May and the combined Men and Women's Glee Club gave a concert in the spring.

Besides presenting and participating in university programs, the Women's Glee Club sang in Athens churches.

Glee Club Officers are President Arlene Bibbee, Secretary Margaret Sayles and Librarian Eudice Gittleson.

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

FRONT ROW: Joyce Bryant, Bernadine Bower, Henrietta Mehlman.
SECOND ROW: Estelle Krupnick, Joy Patterson, Janet Ingerham, Marian Malony, Doris Bolles, Nadine Sparre.

THIRD ROW: Arlene Bibbee, Jean Hales, Mary Jane McKinley, Ursula Green, Carolyn Cummins, Ellen Clark, Ardath Hansen.
ABSENT: Mary Ann Sarver, Eileen Price.

Members of SAI relax in Music Hall.

Sigma Alpha Iota is the national music fraternity for women. OU's chapter completed another year of sponsoring high standards in music among the women on the campus green. This organization devotes itself to the study and practice of art and music.

Members of Sigma Alpha Iota were prominent performers at the School of Music's Student Recitals throughout the school year. An outstanding activity of the holiday season was the Christmas serenade of Dean Voigt's home and the three women's dormitories just before vacation.

PHI MU ALPHA

FIRST ROW: J. Rhodes, E. Moore, P. Peterson, W. Walters, R. Gabriel, R. Keys, R. Buntz, W. Alfeld, A. Brown, A. Kochaiko, W. Erwine, B. Max, J. Brown.
SECOND ROW: R. Sturm, B. Smith, D. King, R. Davis, L. Vaughn, R. Sigler, N. Crabtree, R. Wilcox, J. Kirkpatrick, B. Duer, F. Bellino, M. Rana, C. Hill.

Under the leadership of President Arnold Brown, OU's Alpha Kappa Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity of America this year inaugurated a series of faculty lectures by professors of the School of Music. The Phi Mu Alpha-sponsored lectures included talks by Dr. Robinson, Prof. Fontaine, and Dr. Gorton, who spoke on "Contemporary American Music." These lectures were open to the public and were well attended.

On April 22, Phi Mu Alpha, in connection with its sister fraternity, Sigma Alpha Iota, sponsored the second All-American Concert. Directed by Arnold Brown, this concert was given by the club in connection with its aim to bring to the attention of the campus the value of American music. The program this year included an original composition by Dr. Robinson for women's voices, "Stop Watch in a Machine Shop" by Barker for men's voices and tympani and a cantata by Schuman to a text by Whittman.

P. L. Peterson leads the Phi Mu Alpha in a song.

EAST GREEN COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: A. Ahart, S. Joseph, J. Bartley, J. Keefe, J. Kelly, E. Gutt.
SECOND ROW: P. Billy, J. Canaris, S. Armeni, J. Serksis, B. Ralston, Pres. J. Dehnke, C. Brockman, R. Regula, R. Murie, M. Wilt.

THIRD ROW: L. Smith, R. Owen, R. Zehrbach, E. Singleton, B. Supinski, W. Burazer, D. Watson, D. Blanchard, T. Hartzell.

... permanent part of U's campus.

The fall semester brought a new self-governing organization to Ohio University. The six hundred residents of the housing units known as East Green united into the East Green Organization, so that this relatively isolated area might become a real part of the entire campus self-governing system and secure needed representation in university affairs.

The purpose as set forth in a written constitution is to create and maintain better living conditions for the residents, to plan and operate social, academic and intra-mural programs and to aid in the advancement of better student relations.

The governing bodies of the organization are the East Green Council and the East Green Executive Committee.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

FIRST ROW: Pres. Rosemary Bernard, Norma Kodes, Miss LaTourrette, Jeanette Gecsy, Bette Manvell.
 SECOND ROW: Edna Gordon, Carrol Goettinger, Pat Auping, Janet Ingerham, June Cable, Susan Lamb.

Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's national scholastic honorary which has as its membership requirement a 3.5 average, was established on this campus in 1941.

Alpha Lambda Delta strives to stimulate and reward high scholastic endeavor and campus service.

This year, Alpha Lambda Delta served at the Leaders' Rally Luncheon, held its traditional scholarship party for freshmen and sent congratulatory messages to all first semester freshmen women with six weeks' averages of 3 points or better.

PHOENIX

Phoenix, Junior women's honorary, chooses its members from 2nd semester sophomore women who have been outstanding in scholarship, leadership and activities. The new members are called in the traditional after-hours ceremony. The honorary, which was founded in 1931, serves by ushering at various campus functions — the Honors Convo, commencement, etc.

This year, Phoenix gave a tea at the Women's Faculty Club for all eligible sophomores, and called two women at the end of the 1st semester. They discussed going national as a charter member of Chimes, but decided to wait until plans were more definite.

FRONT ROW: Betty Armstrong, Betty Smith, Jo Frederick, Peg Redlin, Miss Jefferson.
 SECOND ROW: Kathy Bernhardt, Peg Biewener, Joan Cross, and Mariann Malony.

MORTAR BOARD

FIRST ROW: Avis Gill, Peggy Sheard, Doris Standing, Joy Patterson.

SECOND ROW: Jean Dow, Dean Voigt, Margaret Sayles, Nancy Quackenbush, Margaret Huck, Donna Lee Burton, Pat Connor.

The many services of Mortar Board, the senior women's honorary, this year included a "big sister" program for members of Alpha Lambda Delta. Each Mortar Board member acts as a senior advisor to an underclass girl. By personal conferences with them, the Mortar Board hopes to encourage and guide them in fields of scholarship, activities, and leadership. A "Smarty Pants" party honoring these members of Alpha Lambda Delta was given in the spring.

At a tea given in honor of the Mortar Board Alumni in the fall, the members became acquainted with local alums. At the same time they became better acquainted among themselves by such informal get togethers as a waffle supper at the W. R. A. cabin.

Each spring, Mortar Board has a Parisian Book Sale. Books are collected from townspeople and students and are sold on campus from a booth much like the book stalls of Paris. In the past this has proved to be a popular event.

Members of Mortar Board enjoy tea in Dean Voigt's home.

J-CLUB

FIRST ROW: Earle Phillips, Jr., W. Chaffin, R. Russo, D. Fahnestock, B. Dietrich, C. Staats, J. Neenan, J. Sigman, E. Smith, P. Reiser

SECOND ROW: M. Pitz, R. Lambdin, J. Dehnke, H. Kler, E. Schott, C. Long, B. Baxter, E. Jirik, E. Roberto, G. Cox, N. Alexander, E. Haney, B. McCutcheon, N. Mihalik.

J-Club is an undergraduate honorary which gives due recognition to junior or second semester sophomore men for outstanding participation in extra-curricular activities. These men must also have an accumulated 2.5 or higher scholastic average.

The purpose of the club is to encourage participation in campus activities, the rewarding of persons who have participated, and the promotion of a spirit of friendship among the men selected for membership in the club.

In normal times 11 initiates are named on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month. In this past selection, 15 initiates were named due to the large enrollment of men in school. Formal and informal initiations are held under the McGuffy Elms.

Ex-Prexy Coover Staats pins new president Gordon Cox.

TORCH

FIRST ROW: Rocky Russo, Bill Dietrich, Bill Smith.
SECOND ROW: Bob Max, Earle Phillips, Jr., C. Jacque Rhodes, Jack Neenan.

The annual Torch Sing picks the top campus Glee Club.

In its 35th year on the Ohio University campus, the membership in TORCH was increased to 372 men, when in June of 1947 13 men were selected. This was increased one more when another man was chosen from the mid-year class.

Highlighting the past year was the Homecoming Alumni Luncheon in honor of the anniversary of the 35th year of TORCH. Cards were sent to all members, dating back to 1913, and attendance was very good. This luncheon will be held as an annual event.

The annual TORCH Sing was held on the steps of the library with all of its usual impressiveness, as the various groups vied for singing honors.

MIA Officers: A. K. Treasurer, R. H. Leach, V. Pres., R. H. Leach, Secretary, and N. K. M. President.

As the Men's Independent Association moved into its second year of re-activation on the OU campus, it proved itself to be one of the strongest extra curricular activities in the school year.

The OU Men's Independent Association is a member of the National Independent Association, which has its national office at the University of Texas. OU's MIA gained recognition by having the largest membership of any of the member associations.

Open to all independent men on campus, the MIA offers and sponsors a wide selection of social activities, sporting events and other means of entertainment.

Thrice-weekly MIA Movies at Memorial Auditorium brought top-notch entertainment to OU.

MIA Basketball Team included: Omar Johnson, Boyd Post, Joe Miller, Walter Joyce, Norm Simpkins, Tom Fox.

Probably the greatest benefit to the entire student body was the MIA-sponsored campus movies. These popular shows on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday nights brought entertainment at low cost to everyone. The MIA joined the WIA in sponsoring dancing classes at the Rec Hall, and the two organizations held several joint dances.

The outstanding social function of the MIA year was the Cinderella Ball which featured the music of the two top campus bands. A co-ed "Cinderella" was chosen, and she and her date were showered with many gifts donated by local businessmen. Two men from the MIA are members of MUPB and one man is selected to sit on Student Council.

Executive Council included: SEATED: Bill Hedor, Allen Gottheb, Rob't Forsythe. STANDING: Chas. Fink, Tom Fox, Norm Simpkins, Harry Hand, Rob't Burgee, Gene Berke.

DOLPHIN CLUB

FIRST ROW: J. Edwards, J. Latourette, P. Niedhammer, D. Schneider.
SECOND ROW: J. Von Thron, V. Wavro, J. Weeks, C. Petungill, Pres. I. Jaakkola, M. Lonergan, M. Morrill, E. Sanborn.

THIRD ROW: B. Shoemaker, R. Bruss, M. Lonergan, C. Dotzlof, H.
Steele, T. Basilone, P. Moore, R. Manship, B. Sabodi.

Members of the Dolphin Club will present their annual water show.

Members of the Dolphin Club, the women's swimming organization, are chosen each spring in competitive try-outs. An initiation party follows for the new members. The Dolphinettes become full-fledged members the following December if they have shown sufficient improvement and interest in club activities.

At meetings held weekly on Wednesday nights, the girls work on swimming strokes, rhythmic and group swimming, and water patterns. In the middle of the fall semester, the members begin practicing numbers for the annual Water Show, shown to the campus in March.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

FIRST ROW: Susan Hinkle, Estelle Kalish, Margaret Sifers.
SECOND ROW: Gerry Kavilir, Donna Burton, Lois McGrew, Margaret Biewener, Den Ann Deckard, Becky Coldwell.

The Ohio University Dance Club gave their annual Spring Concert for the many students who appreciate and derive aesthetic pleasure from the art of modern dance. Perfection of design was shown by the members in their original classical and satirical dances.

This year, for the first time, modern dance was incorporated in the campus variety show, "OU KIDS", under the direction of Miss Phillips, advisor to the Dance Club.

The Dance Club has an apprentice group, the Reserve Club, which is open to all those interested in modern dancing. It serves as a preliminary training group for the Dance Club, which in turn accepts those best qualified from the personal tryouts. Both clubs however, strive for the development of dance technique.

WOMEN'S RECREATIONAL ASSOCIATION

WRA Executive Council includes: FIRST ROW: Mary Roadpouch, Donna Lee Burton, Annette Trump, Marcy Lonergan.
SECOND ROW: Bert Lavorde, Ethel Krupansky, Mary Jane McKinley, Mariann Maloney.

WRA Sports Board includes: FIRST ROW: Lois Brien, Virginia Wilson, Mariann Maloney, Marilyn Muecke, Irma Jaukkola, Jackie La Tourrette.
SECOND ROW: Fernak Nordhammer, Bert Latorde, Polly Kruse, Lois McGrew, Anne De Mano, Ethel Shoemaker, Nancy Bretschneider.

The Women's Recreational Association, under the direction of the Sports Board, sponsors a sports program for all women on campus, including tennis, outing, hockey, soccer, and basketball in the fall, and volleyball, badminton, swimming, bowling, tumbling, and softball in the spring. It also maintains the W. R. A. cabin, located 1½ miles from the campus, which is complete with cooking facilities, and may be used by any group of girls in the afternoons for study, or just "to get away from it all" on week-ends.

Highlighting the social calendar were the Homecoming Carnival, a freshman party, and a Christmas dinner, at which new officers were installed.

Sponsoring the pre-game pep rallies and Victory dances following home games, Varsity O completed one of its most active years on campus.

The organization provided entertainment between the halves of the basketball games and jointly sponsored the Homecoming Queen contest with MUPB.

Every other year Varsity O has charge of the Homecoming dance and the athlete's club also puts on the Varsity O Follies featuring the talent among its members.

This year the organization took on many new responsibilities. They set up a scholarship fund for deserving athletes, and contributed funds toward the purchase of an electric scoring board for the stadium.

Distinctive turbans set off unlucky Varsity O pledges.

THIRD ROW: D. Yeagley, B. J. Miller, E. G. Koury, L. Pedigo, P. McNutty, R. O'Linn, M. Wilt.

The members of TKA are getting a negative on a topic soon to be debated.

In January, members of Tau Kappa Alpha, National Forensic Honorary Fraternity, played host to an open forum discussion held by the World Affairs Committee of the University faculty. Tau Kappa Alpha sponsored the Freshman State Debate Tournament at O. U. in February.

Miss Terry Jenkins, a member of TKA, went to the finals of the national women's oratory contest held at Northwestern University last year.

Sponsoring numerous inter-collegiate debates, TKA has become a well-known honorary on the campus. The women's debate team brought back the Championship trophy to the campus this year, making two such trophies in the permanent possession of TKA. The women had three legs on this cup.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

 FOURTH ROW: J. Gill, D. Smith, R. Zehrbach, W. Selers, I. Hyman, R. Wetherholt, J. Mutchler, R. Johnson.

Delta Gamma chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, the national service fraternity for college men who are or have been previously affiliated with the Boy Scouts of America, re-assumed active participation in campus activities during the past year.

The more important functions of the Alpha Phi Omega included the maintenance of information booths and a guiding service during Cutler Re-dedication Weekend, alumni registration during Homecoming, the presentation of talks and skits to the local Boy Scouts Troops of Athens and neighboring communities and general service to the school and city administration during special events. Under the leadership of President Raymond Hendershot, the organization grew to one of the largest on campus.

Officers of Alpha Phi Omega are: Jame, Hanning, Ray Hendershot, Milton Wetherbee, Robt Beverage, and STANDING: Don Moats and Harry Munger

CHRISTMAS DAZE BRINGS CAROLING, PARTIES AND EXAMS

Christmas! The magic word has a slightly different meaning to every student—but the thoughts follow the same pattern. For Christmas-time is a joyous time—and one of relief for many.

Christmas brings with it the exams, the campus caroling, the Christmas Convo, the house parties, and at last the trip home. The air is filled with the season's spirit—in spite of the pre-holiday tests, the students quicken their step just a little, their faces light up and they hum to the Cutler chimes. For a while the steady grind is relieved, and parties, dances, and singing are the order of the day.

A large crowd attended the annual campus sing held the Wednesday before Christmas.

Left and below The annual Christmas Convo presented a medieval Miracle Play of the Nativity, given by the dramatics and music departments

The biggest all-campus Christmas event is the Campus Caroling, which has become a tradition. This year, not minding the cold, hundreds of students filled in front of Cutler. Before the Caroling a concert was given on the chimes. Then each fraternity glee club gave a selection, followed by several numbers by the Men's Glee Club. The entire gathering then joined in the Alma Mater.

In the morning, a Christmas Convo presented a fifteenth century Miracle Play. The play was directed by M. W. Tillson and produced by Winifred Lenham. The combined Women's and Men's Glee Clubs sang carols at the Convo.

At last! The long awaited trip home adds the finishing touch to OU's Christmas Daze.

Leap year gave OU's co-eds the incentive to make Co-ed Prom a huge success.

The girls and their dates relax under the entrance to the dance. "Gold Digger's Holiday" was the theme of this year's Co-ed Prom.

It's the girl who pays, for a change, as Clarion Theisz buys a coke for Bruce Johnston.

The men think it's wonderful! The girls get them a corsage, help them with their coats, and even check the coats at the dance.

O. U.'s Co-ed Prom was attended by over four hundred couples in the annual mid-semester turn-about affair. The corsages the girls made for the fellows ranged from the ridiculous to the absurd - all the way from a live goldfish in a bowl to the winning valentine heart with real candles. Sponsored by the Women's League, the theme this year was the "Gold Digger's Ball". Bill McCutcheon furnished the music.

OU's uneven ratio left four at home for each man that attended.

Panhellenic Council strives to improve present conditions and to advance the welfare of campus sororities through the ideals of high scholarship, good health, and the maintenance of fine social standards. It fosters cooperation, coordination, and unity among sororities, fraternities, and other campus organizations, and supports every individual and general sorority undertaking on the campus.

The presidents and one delegate from each sorority comprise the membership of Panhel Council. Officers are selected by the rotation plan according to the year the sorority was founded at Ohio University.

This year the annual inter-sorority formal sponsored by Panhel was decorated with the crests of each of the ten sororities on the Ohio University campus.

Fraternity functions bolstered the campus swing back to pre-war undergraduate life with Inter-Fraternity Council pacing at the head of the 14 male Greek organizations resident on the campus.

The council had the honor of extending to three new local fraternities, Sigma Beta, Sigma Omicron Nu, and Trowel, recognition as part of the 1,000 or so fraternity men in the university.

Functioning as an arbitration board for disputes and as a policy-setter, the council re-vamped the constitution and rules governing fraternities on the campus to coincide with the normalcy trend; financially sponsored an international exchange student and eclipsed the spring social season with the inter-fraternity dance.

The first post-war class of non-veterans posed new pledge-training problems for the fraternities which I. F. C. helped solve by correlating fraternity activities. A pledge Inter-Fraternity Council was reactivated by the senior I. F. C. to help in this work.

Blue Key, a pre-war Greek honorary organization, was another institution re-introduced by the council as part of a restoration program to provide fraternity men with fraternity life which would be beneficial both to the students and to the university.

OHIO UNIVERSITY BANDS

Performing on the football field, in front of all spectators.

The University Bands are composed of two highly functional musical organizations—the Symphonic Band, which maintains a well-balanced instrumentation of selected musicians, and the Varsity Band, which serves as a recreational-laboratory group. Members of both bands offer concerts and performances in the interests of musical culture and entertainment and for the enhancement of school spirit. Membership with credit is open to all men and women in the university.

Under the direction of Daniel S. Martino and the council and band officers, a social program climaxed with the Recognition Banquet was arranged.

OU SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The University Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of DeForest W. Ingerham, is composed of sixty-five students, faculty and townspeople.

The three formal concerts of the year featured Miss Louise Rose, Soprano, Miss Armida Koivisto, pianist, and the Men's Glee Club as soloists. The Orchestra accompanied the annual chorus program in May.

Miss Louise Rose was a graduate of Ohio University in 1943. She was formerly the soloist at the Cincinnati Symphony and the Chautauqua Opera Company. Miss Rose is now soloist at St. Nicholas Dutch Reformed Church of Fifth Avenue, New York.

Annual trips to nearby cities and branch schools for appearances were not made this year. Guided by a cabinet of officers, the Orchestra provides a splendid opportunity for musical enjoyment.

"The Late George Apley" was a November OU Theater Production

An Apley family gathering with Bob Mager, Becky Caldwell, Archie Greer as George Apley, Carolyn Mobus, Roger Allen, Peg Ferguson, Ilene Bregmen, Carl Hall and Therese Nelson as Mrs. Apley. Miss Virginia Hahne directed this play about a Boston family which was written by Marquand and Coffman.

Kathryn Gottshall as she appeared in "The American" stops to talk to Herb Klier, holding Mr. LaFollette's daughter. Looking on is Larry Ward, as the wealthy American. Written and directed by Lorraine Nevue, "The American" was a theatre event of the spring of 1947.

OU Theatre's outstanding hits were "Moor Born" and "Skin of our Teeth"

Dan Totheroh's "Moorborn" was a December presentation of the OU Theatre. Christopher Lane, director, was assisted by Roger Allan. "Moorborn" brought the story of the talented Bronte sisters and their family to the OU stage. Kathryn Gottshall and Dave Neuhaus (below) gave brilliant portrayals in this dramatic production.

Shown at home in the Bronte drawing room are Joe Hirschhorn, Vicki Cecchi, Kathryn Gottshall, Jeanne Roth, Margaret Hall, Mirian Schauder and Dave Neuhaus.

"The Skin of Our Teeth" by Thornton Wilder brought hilarious comedy to the OU theatre. The February production, the story of George Antrobus, his wife and two children, and their maid, Sabina of Excelsior, New Jersey, showed how an average American family survived fire, flood, the ice age, a dozen wars, and the double feature. Left shows Easter Yahya as Sabina, the maid - was the outstanding part in the show.

Paul Kimpel, Therese Nelson, Carolyn Herbert and Roger Allen as they appeared in "The Skin of Our Teeth".

"Serenade of the Bells"

Without a song no college campus would be the same. They're as traditional as classes; fit moods and occasions as much as the weather. '48 found the students "Lookin' Over a Four-Leaf Clover", sadly humming "My, How the Time does Fly.", at 10 o'clock, and dancing to the strains of "It's Witchery" at the Grill. The songs of '48 may fade, but we'll still be singing in '49.

FIRE!

OU's routine is upset as fire guts Vet's Village—

Athens comes to rescue with many gifts for victims.

A Sunday night fire brought crowds to Vet's Village behind Athens' stores. Damage was kept to one prefab hut.

Bill Miller, Vet's Village mayor, presents gifts to Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Youngman and Mr. & Mrs. John Turner and daughter, Patricia, victims of the fire.

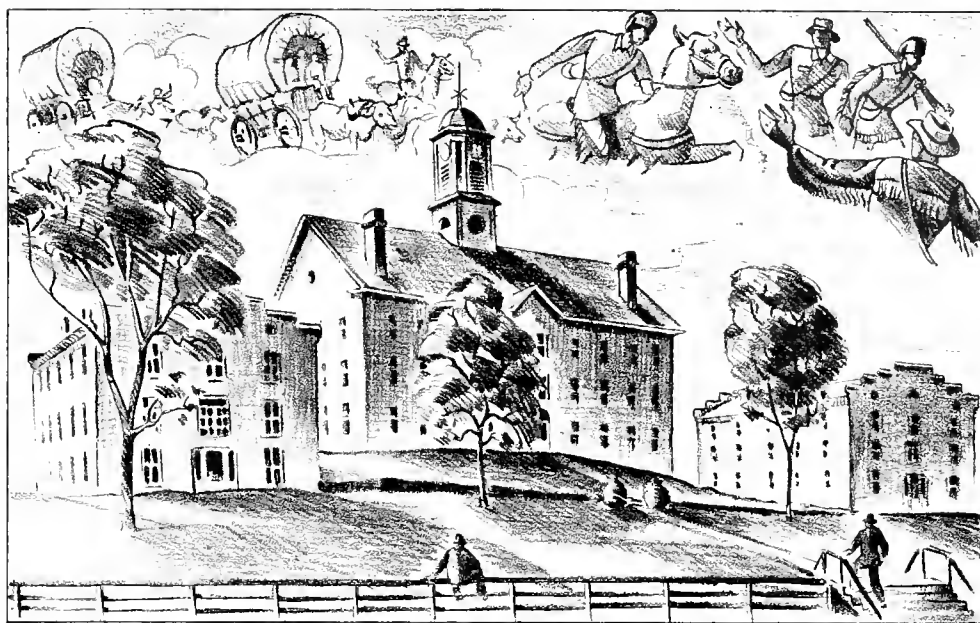

Top, the Youngman's view inside of their home which was a total loss. Bottom, a crowd of well-wishers gather around fire victims.

Do You Remember When

Cutler Hall looked like the picture on the right? And can you remember when the Soldiers and Sailors Monument of Ohio University's campus was a famous hitching place and that the flies were more numerous than Yankee base hits; when the present courthouse was built and Court Street was a mud hole in rainy weather; or when South Bridge was on the same level as the railroad tracks; when Grant was the 18th President of the United States, 1869-77. If you can remember these you will recall when Cornwell's first opened in 1869—in the same room they now occupy—79 years ago and still today Athens' most popular jewelry store.

O. U. GRIPES

That you "can't satisfy all of the people all of the time" was evident on the OU campus in '48. Students loudly voiced their gripes, some major ones and some minor. The biggest gripe was the February Graduation in Music Hall, labeled "Black Friday" by the Post. (see cut, right). Here friends of the graduates were generally unable to see the ceremony, as the Hall proved to be much too small to accommodate the audience. Other gripes were mostly unimportant, or at least hard to correct.

Crowded classes and labs caused conflicts among students.

Athens' uneven sidewalks caused angry thoughts—Tie-ups at scarce drinking fountains soured thirsty throats.

Many a meal was missed for booklines, corrected 2nd semester.

First checks were always late, causing chaos among vets.

East Green "Mountaineers" made this trip every day.

Athens' floods provide conversation, cause disruption.

SIG CARNIVAL

Sigma Theta Gamma's '48 Carnival went over with all the tradition and trimmings that have made this function so outstanding at OU. Perhaps the most popular fraternity dance of the year, couples tossed loads of confetti and streamers all over the country club.

Everyone was at the dance. One fellow, afraid of missing the festivities, grabbed his crutches and escorted his date to the fun and frolics.

1948 Community Concert Season

One of the outstanding contributions to the culture of Athens is the Community Concert Series. This program is supported by the students and townspeople alike, and stars of the concert world are brought to the campus. Outstanding among the offering of the Series this year was the full-length production of Puccini's opera "Madame Butterfly." A company of eighty, an orchestra of thirty, new costumes and settings and an all-star cast combined to produce a satisfying performance.

James Melton highlighted '47 Spring season.

Coloratura Virginia MacWatters gave colorful concert—Nikolai and Joanna Grouden were popular cello-piano duo.

Independents take Council Presidency

Above, button-holing was employed by some campaigners in their efforts. Below, a large turnout marked the Student Council Elections.

Nick Mihalik, independent candidate, captured the Student Council Election at OU by a 2-1 margin in the March election. Ted Richards, a write-in candidate, took the men's vice-presidency, and Nancy Troup won the women's race in much closer competition. A total of 2,164 students voted, which was much larger than last year's total. The election was marked by vigorous campaigning on the part of some organizations, and Mihalik's victory came somewhat as a surprise, for almost no campaigning was done by the independents. Below are shown, left-to-right, Nick Mihalik, president, Ted Richards and Nancy Troup.

And so—another-30-

Yes, '48 was a great year, after all—at first it looked as if the Athena's theme was too high, but I think we reached it. '48 was a great year because it was a big year—OU was alive—we were learning to live and to learn. It was also a year of disappointment and troubles—the fellows in the Grill with loneliness on their faces—the people who missed the J Prom—those who read the papers with increasing concern.

But over and above these troubles were the gay times—things we won't forget—the excitement of the first week of school—a winning football game—the impatience of Christmas week—the thrill of working and learning with almost 6000 other students, just like you—the wonderful spring days—we shan't forget these. For OU was preparing itself for a world that needed people willing to think, and to work, and to face problems squarely. For '48 was a busy year—and OU thought about everything from parties and gin-jugs to Russian domination and local intolerance.

Yes, '48 was a great year for OU, and the Athena Staff has tried to bring it to you in our "baby". We've worked hard on it,—hope you enjoy it and want to show it to your friends. We've told ourselves we were a bit modernistic with our phototreatments, and our scarcity of copy—we just hope it gets the idea across.

The editor sincerely wants to thank everyone of the many people who have helped on the book—I'm sure you have learned many things, as have I. I especially want to thank Nan, Gus, Ralph, Jeannie & Peggy; whose special efforts came to my notice. I would like to express my appreciation of the fine cooperation we received from the Indianapolis Engraving Company. Hope you liked it, and
